FRIDAY, JULY 28

Embroidered Embellishment — Garments of the American West: 10 a.m. 100 N. Main, Joseph. Join Oregon artist and hand embroiderer Nichole Alvarado as she demonstrates five traditional stitches, all of which may be used to embellish a garment you've brought along — no needle and thread experience necessary. Students will learn back, split, satin and stem stitch as well as French knot. Choose your embellishment from three small designs or create your own. Bring a nonstretch garment to embroider; cotton, linen and denim work well. All other materials are included and students will go home with a small embroidery stitch sampler, two needles and a four-inch wooden embroidery hoop, as well as enough embroidery floss to complete your piece at home. Fee: $58.

New Old Time Chautauqua: Noon downtown Enterprise. Live performances, community events and arts education by volunteer performers. Celebratory parade begins noon at Enterprise High School, ending at the Wallowa County Courthouse. Free workshops 12:30-2:30 p.m. Vaudeville extravaganza 7 p.m. at OK Theatre with live music, juggling, acrobatics, dance, magic, mime and more. Tickets for the vaudeville presentation are $10 for adults and $8 for children under 12, available at the door beginning at 6:30 p.m. or in advance at the Bookloft. Proceeds benefit the Wallowa Valley Music Alliance.

OBITUARIES

Leo Beard

Dec. 28, 1919 — July 13, 2017

Leo Beard, 97, passed away July 13, 2017 at his home in Asotin Creek, Wash.

Leo was born Dec. 28, 1919, near Paradise, Ore., to Len and Ina (Varney) Beard. He was the sixth of seven children. Siblings were Georgia Estes, Frank, Orpha Reiman, Ralph, Mable Warnsley and Leonard. All are deceased except for Leonard.

The family lived on Joseph Creek 1906-1942, and the children attended Deer Creek School near Paradise.

In 1941, Leo married Leita Swisher. They logged and ranched in Asotin and Wallowa counties for many years. Two daughters were born to them: Carolyn (Cutler) and Sharon Bloodsworth. Carolyn passed away in 2008.

Leo is survived by his wife of 76 years; his daughter, Sharon and Lew Bloodsworth; three grandsons, Richard "Spanky" Bloodsworth, Karl (Richel) Bloodsworth and Wade (Debbie) Bloodsworth; great-grandchildren Britanie, Brandy, Levi, Sidney and Cody Bloodsworth; son-in-law Leroy Cutler; step-grandson Michael Cutler; and devoted caretaker Lisa Snodderly.

Any donations may be made to the Asotin Museum. Honoring Leo's wishes, no services will be held.

Effie Pearl Burns

June 28, 1995 — July 11, 2017

Effie Pearl Burns, 22, passed away July 11 in a tragic car accident. Her two-year-old son survived the wreck without injuries.

Effie's Celebration of Life will be 1 p.m. Saturday, July 29, at Wallowa High School.

Effie was born in Portland June 28, 1995, at 12:15 a.m. She was then adopted Aug. 7, 1998, with her older sister Angela to her parents Robert and Audra Burns.

Effie's interests as she grew older were horses, outdoors, sports and music. She participated in 4-H with her horse and also loved to ride bareback at home. When the outdoors called her name, she would ride four-wheelers, go camping, hike the mountains, float the river and shoot her gun all while enjoying the company of her family.

Effie enjoyed playing sports with her older sister, which included basketball and softball. She also participated in volleyball. She was active in all aspects of the band and played the clarinet. She then later taught herself to play the guitar. She enjoyed writing her own music and performing for her family.

Shortly after high school, she met the love of her life, Joe Starner, and created a new life with him. The following year they were blessed with the news of their family extending. Jameson Drew Starner was then born July 9, 2015.

Effie is survived by her father and mother, Robert Burns and Audra (Jim) Allen; older sister Angela (Shea) Swedin and two nephews; younger brother Gabriel Burns, all residing in Wallowa. Also survived by her significant other Joe Starner and son Jameson Starner residing in Welches, Ore.

A Gofundme account has been established in memory of Effie to cover all unexpected expenses.

Spencer, Libby and Powel Funeral home in The Dalles, Ore, is in charge of arrangements.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

This week's athlete of the week is Hailey Collier, a senior cheerleader on Enterprise High school's cheerleading squad.

During a recent cheerleading camp in Pullman, Washington, Collier, 17, was selected for the All-American Award.

As a result of the award, Collier was invited to cheer in London, England for the World's Day parade on New Year's Day.

Collier, who has participated in competitive cheerleading most of her life, also won a cheerleading slot at next week's East-West Shrine All-Star football game to be played in Baker City.
