

What's Happening EASTERNOREGONEVENTS.COM EXPANDED ONLINE CALENDAR

1 Start your day with an all-you can eat BREAKFAST served by the Hurricane Creek Grange. Fill up on pancakes, biscuits and gravy and your favorite beverage. Pancakes will come off the griddle starting 7 a.m. The Grange hall is located on Hurricane Creek Road west of Joseph Airport.

2 If you miss the Grange breakfast or if you're in the mood for more fuel for your day, head over to the WALLOWA COUNTY FLY-IN at Joseph Airport. Serving begins at 7 a.m. Then sit back and enjoy a day devoted to aviation. Watch the West Coast Ravens perform. Poke your head into dozens of different planes on display and immerse yourself in aviation history.

3 Celebrate with Wallowa Valley Center for Wellness during a GROUND BREAKING for the construction of a $7 million integrated health services building at 10 a.m. off Medical Parkway in Enterprise. Festivities comments with a town hall meeting with Sen. Bill Hansell and Rep. Greg Barreto providing an update on the recently-ended legislative session. A free barbecue will be served to all comers 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

4 Music at the BRONZE BLUES & BREWS FESTIVAL strikes up at noon in Joseph City Park. Besides top-notch music from Sugar Ray and the Blue Tones, enjoy more than 20 microbrews on tap. Food, wine and bronze sculptures will also be available. This is a family-friendly event; children under 10 are admitted free. The Friday Night Showcase is a good time to experience this event if your Saturday is already crammed.

5 If your tastes run a tad on the avant garde side, check out the EAGLE CAP INSULATOR SWAP MEET beginning 8:30 a.m. Saturday at the home of Linda and Howard Banks, 65028 Granger Road, Lostine. If glass insulators of all colors are your thing if you'd like to learn more about collecting and trading them, this is your opportunity. Highlights include an ugly insulator contest. Great for history buffs.

6 End your Saturday with the conclusion of the WALLOWA COUNTY FAIR at the fairgrounds. The annual 4-H and FFA Awards begins 4 p.m. with a barbecue to follow. The fair concludes with the livestock sale where diligent young people are rewarded for their hard work. Bring your check book if you'd like to bid.

7 If you're feeling charitable, stop by the Joseph Community Center Sunday evening for a FUNDRAISER for Del and Brinda Stanley 5 p.m. Del sustained a severe brain injury and has been unable to work. The Stanleys are long-time community volunteers. A dinner is 6 p.m. with a benefit auction to follow.

OBITUARIES

James Harold Guida

Aug. 29, 1940 — July 19, 2017

Jim Guida was born Aug. 29, 1940, in Pequot Lakes, Minn., to Harold and Vivian Guida and left for heaven July 19, 2017.

He attended school in Deer Island near Longview, Wash., and graduated high school in St. Helens, Oregon. He was skilled as a welder, enjoyed mining, mechanic-ing and buying, selling, and trading. Most of all, he was a father, grandfather, brother, uncle, Christian and friend. Jim will be missed by many friends, acquaintances and relatives.

Per his request, there will not be a funeral. Jim would hope that you remember his life-times.

Jim Guida

Vernon Arlo Henderson

May 28, 1956 — Aug. 1, 2017

Vernon Arlo Henderson, 85, died Aug. 1, 2017, at the Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston, Ore., surrounded by his wife and children. He had resided in Irrigon, Ore., for the past 25 years.

He was born Nov. 24, 1931, in Promise, Ore., to Vesper Ray and Maude (Taylor) Henderson. He was the youngest of 12 children. Arlo married Glenna Skelton May 28, 1956, in Lewiston, Idaho. After graduating from Wallowa High School he said he "bummed around working a little here and there" before he joined the U.S. Air Force. He made a career of it, but after climbing as high in rank as he could, he took his discharge from the Air Force and later joined the Army seeking that higher rank.

He had many adventures in the military connected to his overseas deployments. After retiring from the military he worked as a millwright, packaging engineer and truck driver while living in Wallowa, Hermiston and Milton-Freewater. Arlo had old fashioned values — a handshake was your word. He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He loved flying, riding his horse and gardening.

Patricia Irene Lathrop Snodderly

Jan. 12, 1939 — Aug. 3, 2017

Patricia Irene Lathrop Snodderly died Aug. 3, 2017, in Aurora, Ore. She was born in Oregon and raised in Wallowa County, graduating from Lostine High School. She had lived in Aurora for 38 years.

She married Timothy Edward Snodderly June 6, 1956, in Lewiston, Idaho. She was a wife and mother as well as a grocery clerk. She enjoyed sewing, knitting and puzzles.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Douglas Lee Snodderly of Aurora; a daughter, Diana Kay Ebert of Vancouver, Wash.; two grandchildren, Danielle Irene Evert of Vancouver and David Christopher Gravelle of Eugene; three great-grandchildren, Megan Gravelle, Quentin Dennis Gravelle and Timothy Richard Gravelle, all of Eugene.

She was preceded in death by a son, Dennis Ray Snodderly, in June 1982.

Graveside services will be 3 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 12, at Lostine Cemetery. Memorial donations may be made to the Lostine Cemetery.

Corrections

In the July 26 issue of the Chieftain "Push underway to improve local housing situation" we incorrectly identified Dianne Daggett as "property manager for Daggett Enterprises." She is a property manager for Wallowa Mountain Properties. The Chieftain regrets the error.

The Aug. 2 issue of the Chieftain's Chieftain Bronze Blues and Brews festival preview incorrectly named Valley Bronze of Joseph as a festival sponsor. The foundry sponsor is Parks Bronze of Enterprise. The Chieftain regrets the error.

Thank you
Our family has been overwhelmed with all of the kindness shown us since losing our loved one. We have been blessed with calls, cards, visits, food, flowers and donations. It has all been so appreciated. A special thanks to the EMT's and nursing staff at Wallowa Memorial Hospital. Your care and concern was most comforting. We would also like to thank everyone who came to the Celebration of Life. Thank you to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and the Women's Relief Society for taking care of our family and all the details of the service and dinner. Words seem inadequate for the love and support to us during our time of loss and is greatly appreciated.
