First ‘Tunesmith Night’ is Oct. 14

Wallowa Valley Music Alliance will present the opening concert for 12th season of Tunesmith Night, a monthly showcase of original music Oct. 14 featuring two Americana-flavored duos, Wanderlodge from Portland and Jezebel’s Mother from Wallowa County.

IF YOU GO Wallowa Valley Music Alliance’s Tunesmith Night is 7 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 14, at the Jennings Hotel, 100 North Main, Joseph.

Wanderlodge is Matt Cadenelli and Kris Stuart. Cadenelli is a long-time Portland musician and member of such bands as The Don of Division Street, Fernando, Brothers & Sister, Dr. Theopolis, Portland Country Underground and others.

Weaving together musical styles from Wilco to Nick Lowe to The Kinks to Neil Young, his sounds feature song-centric, melodious vistas aligned with insightful lyrical musings.

Jezebel’s Mother features songwriters Carolyn Lochert and Janis Carper, both residents of Wallowa County. With their new CD, “Real Pearls,” in hand, the duo blends their talents to form a unique sound; swirling with rhythms and harmonies, sentiment and smiles, tight but spontaneous, each performance a musical adventure that reveals the bond of best friends.

A winner in the 2015 Indie International Songwriting Contest, Carper has nine recordings to her credit. Her soulful vocals, masterful guitar playing and well-crafted songs have been heard at festivals, concert halls and radio programs nationwide. When not collaborating with Lochert, she keeps busy as founder and director of the Wallowa Valley Music Alliance.

Tunesmith Night is presented in a round-robin format with each musician playing a song, then the next taking a turn.

Admission is $10 at the door or by season pass. Doors open at 6 p.m., music at 7 p.m., all ages welcome. No food or beverage service provided.

OBITUARIES

James Moffit
Aug. 14, 1944 — Sept. 23, 2017

Jim Moffit of Enterprise, passed away Saturday, Sept. 23, 2017.

Jim had a passion for the outdoors even as a young boy growing up in La Grande. He loved to hunt, fish, camp and hike mountains.

He was able to work in the outdoors for the majority of his career with the U.S. Forest Service in scenic places he enjoyed exploring.

Jim was married to his wife Judy for 51 years, and they lived mostly in Alaska raising their daughter and experiencing many adventures, eventually moving back to Eastern Oregon a few years ago. He built beautiful canoes, was a wonderful storyteller, an avid reader and took great care in all that he did.

Jim is survived by his wife, Judy; his daughter, Lindy; his son-in-law, Jon; and his granddaughter Keira. He will be missed by the many people whose lives he touched. The fires he carefully built for many hot dog roasts over the years will warm all of our hearts in his memory.

Per his wishes, a memorial will be planned for a later time to celebrate his life and to spread his ashes in the Wallowa Mountains.

Bollman Funeral Home was in charge of cremation.

DEATH NOTICE

Esther Carper

Esther Carper, 89, died at Alpine House in Joseph Oct. 1, 2017. At this time, no services are planned. A full obit will be published later. Bollman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
