

OF COSTUMES AND CANDY

Dozens of youngsters crowded into downtown Enterprise on Halloween night for the annual Trunk or Treat festivities. Merchants set up shop out of the backs of cars and trucks to hand out candy and surprises. Meanwhile, Enterprise Christian Church and a number of other area congregations shared resources for an All Saints Eve Celebration Oct. 31 at Wallowa County Fairgrounds. The event featured games and prizes, food, crafts and plenty of candy. All Saints Day, Nov. 1, is a Christian festival celebrated in honor of all the saints, known and unknown. The event was presented as an alternative to the traditional celebration of Halloween.

Carisa Yaw's pony, Teddy, dressed as Dino the Dinosaur, was a hit with young and old alike at the Enterprise Christian Church All Saints Eve celebration Oct. 31 at Cloverleaf Hall. The good-natured equine handled the crowd of children trying for a touch with great aplomb.

Kathleen Ellyn/Chieftain Savannah Ford, 1, of Imnaha will get her treats later. Savannah was part of a family costume party at the Trunk or Treat event in Enterprise.

Kathleen Ellyn/Chieftain Ron Pickens of Enterprise Flower Shop lures a few children into the Shop of Horrors at the Enterprise Trunk or Treat event.
