

HEALTHY FUTURES

DINNER AND AUCTION

Joseph High School FCCLA member Will Caldwell was among a small army of club members who served more than 200 guests at the Healthy Futures Dinner and Auction Nov. 11 at Cloverleaf Hall in Enterprise. Money raised from the event will be put toward purchasing new 3D mammography equipment for Wallowa Memorial Hospital.

A special surprise musical tribute to honor veterans opened the Healthy Futures Dinner and Auction Nov. 11 at Cloverleaf Hall. Musicians Randy Morgan, left, Dr. Liz Powers, Heather Tyreman and Mark Eubanks, along with Gail Swart at the piano, played “America the Beautiful: and “God Bless America.”

Bill Williams, along with his brother, Bob, were the emcees for the Wallowa Valley Health Care Foundation;s annual Healthy Futures Dinner and Auction Nov. 11. Both donned hospital gowns as part of their performance, making note of the poor job they do of covering a person’s backside.

A full house was on hand for the Healthy Futures Dinner and Auction, which helped raise funds for 3D mammography system Nov. 11 at Cloverleaf Hall. When all donations were tallied, around $113,000 had been raised.
