

OBITUARIES

Linda Lou Crane
March 8, 1939 — July 4, 2018

Linda Lou Crane, 80, of Union, passed away at her residence. Per her request, there will be no service.

Linda was born in Lewiston, Idaho, to Erwin and Jennie (Wilsey) Moys. She resided in Enterprise and Union. She married Ray Butler and they later divorced. She then married Virgil Crane.

Linda was a nurse and stayed at home to be a loving mother and wife. She enjoyed painting, cooking, gardening and sewing and spending time with family, spoiling the grandchildren, birds and animals.

Linda is survived by her son, Robert Butner (Samantha) of Union; four grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, Virgil; parents, Erwin and Jennie; son, Kevin Butner; daughter, Denise Rhodes; sisters, Janet Homan and Maciel Fisher and brother, Marcel Moys.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the Blue Mountain Humane Association, 3212 Highway 30, La Grande, OR 97850.

Online condolences may be made to the family at loveland-funeralchapel.com.

Freda Curtis
March 31, 1942 — July 13, 2018

Freda Faynon (Simmons) Curtis died in Vale, Ore. She was born in Enterprise and considered Enterprise their hometown.

Freda is survived by her children Jeffery D. Curtis of Vale, Deborah K. Trouten of Kuna, Idaho, Donald K. Curtis of Utah and Dianna L. Baugh of Boise.

Five grandchildren Alyssa (Stam) West, Morgan (Hart), Jordan Smith, and Jacob Curtis and three great grandchildren, also are survivors.

She graduated from Enterprise High School and married Donald W. Curtis, who passed in 2016. She came to Vale in 1978 and earned an associate's degree in business from Treasure Valley Community College.

She did bookkeeping and taxes for several of the local businesses and farmers. She supported the community. We can take comfort that her life helped the community around her.

Services will be in Vale. Freda will be laid to rest in Enterprise cemetery with her husband Donald Curtis.

Lienkaempers Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

Edwin Lampkins
April 4, 1924 — July 10, 2018

Edwin Wayne Lampkins, husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather and friend to many, will be greatly missed by all who loved and knew him.

Edwin was born in Room 9 in the Flora hotel and passed away in Room 9 at Wildflower Assisted Living in La Grand.

He was born to Buell and Ellen (Doran) Lampkins. At that time, the hotel was run by Ed's mother's side of the family the Doran's. He had two brothers and a sister, Darrell and Georgie (Tucker) Lampkins and Jim and Virginia (Gake) Lampkins and Verna (Lampkins) and Carl Schmittle.

He attended school in Flora and graduated from Enterprise High School.

On Jan. 17, 1945, Edwin married Calista Verla Botts in Pendleton. They raised three children in Troy, Cove and Imbler: Marla (Lampkins) and Eldon Loftis, LeeAnn (Lampkins) and Jim McBath and Donald and Elma Jo (Pode Ashton) Lampkins.

He worked for the U.S. Forest Service in Dufer, Ore., and then moved to Troy where they ran the hotel for many years. Calista cooked and cleaned and fed all the hunters and fisherman that Edwin would guide and take on hunting and fishing trips.

He also worked for the Forest Service in Troy. He was a logger, worked on a dairy farm in Cove, and raised mink on their mink ranch outside of Imbler.

He has five grandchildren, Scott and Kelli (Loree) Loftis, Tina (McBath) and Anthony Anton and Dina McBath Brink and Krista (Lampkins) and Casey Copenhagen and Tara (Lampkins) and Bo Thompson.

He also has nine great grandchildren: Cody, Holly and Ashley Brink, Curtis, Colton and Casey Loftis, Bryleigh and Brynn Thompson and Madalyn Copenhagen and numerous nieces and nephews.

Whenever Edwin was around, you could count on hunting stories that made you laugh and fishing stories about who got the biggest one. Edwin loved working with wood as anyone can tell you — anyone that has ever been in their house at least.

He had a talent for seeing things in his mind and then going to the shop and making it come to life. His kids and his family are surrounded by things that dad, Uncle Ed and Grandpa Edwin made, and we love them and will cherish them forever.

Services pending in September in Enterprise.

This week's athlete of the week honor goes to the pilots who participated in the weekend's Wallowa County Fly-in and Air Show. About 50 pilots and dozens of planes participated in the July 13-14 event. Not only did pilots perform numerous daredevil stunts including flying in formation and "fogging" for the hundreds who attended. The pilots also answered questions without complaint about their planes and flying from the curious.
