IN BRIEF

Students earn money for grades from bank

Community Bank will again award student-customers cash for good grades. The Earn While You Learn Program, now in its eighth year, awarded 704 students from first to 12th grade in Eastern Oregon and Southeast Washington $1 per top grade, up to $50 annually per student, deposited directly in their Youth Savings accounts.

In Wallowa County 59 students from Joseph earned $1,448, 114 students in Enterprise earned $2,826 and 36 students in a total of Wallowa earned $730.

Top students from Wallowa have earned more than $200 over the course of the program, which began in 2011, and (depending on how their grades are recorded) could conceivably earn $600 throughout their academic career, according to Leah Johnson, Marketing Manager of Joseph Community Bank.

‘Every Kid in a Park’ pass offered to fourth-graders

Fourth graders are invited to be part of the Every Kid in a Park program offered by the National Park Foundation. Every

Kid in a Park is a youth initiative to get all fourth-graders and their families to experience our national parks by issuing them a free pass for the school year.

Educators can download passes for their students or students can get their pass by signing up online at everykid-inapark.gov and filling out a brief diary about the things most enjoyed.

The pass admits all children under 16 and up to three adults to national parks for free.

If the park charges a vehicle free, one passenger vehicle gets in free. You can come on bikes, too.

Summer Arts Classic planned for Sept. 16

The Summer Arts Classic: Woodwinds in the Wallows will be held Sept. 16 at Josephy Center in Joseph featuring the Scott/Garrison Duo and Karen Hsiao Savage.

The Wallowa Valley Music Alliance, in partnership with the Josephy Center for Arts and Culture and Wallowa Valley Festival of Arts is sponsoring the event, which begins 4:00pm.

This year's program will feature clarinetist Shannon Scott, flutist Leonard Garrison and pianist Karen Hsiao Savage. Pieces will include Debussy “Afternoon of a Faun” for flute, clarinet, and piano.

Robert Russell Bennett’s “Suite for Flute and Clarinet,” Dvorak’s “Slavonic Dance Suite” for flute, clarinet and piano, and Cavallini’s “Rêverie Russe” for flute, clarinet and piano are also on the docket.

In addition, Mark Eubanks and Lauren Nebel will join the duo with short pieces by Czech composer Leos Janacek, plus an arrangement by Mark Eubanks of the Shaker hymn, “Simple Gifts.”

Admission to the concert is $20 adults and $15 for seniors, youth under 18 are admitted free.

Land Trust hosts outing to Lostine Fish Weir

Wallowa Land Trust will host an outing and Lostine Fish Weir Tour 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, Sept. 8.

Located just upstream of the confluence of the Wallowa and Lostine rivers, the Lostine Fish Weir allows the Nez Perce Tribe to track endangered steelhead and Chinook salmon as they migrate to and from the ocean.

Join Wallowa Land Trust and Nez Perce Fisheries biologist Shane Vatland for a tour of the weir and the river.

To reserve a space, contact intern@wallowalandtrust.org or 541-426-2042. Free admission. Family friendly. Free of charge, donations appreciated.
