OBITUARIES

Virginia Brooks Sasser April 10, 1924 — Aug. 5, 2018

Sasser

Virginia Brooks Sasser was born in Wallowa, to George and Rae McGinnis Brooks. She grew up on the McGinnis Ranch on Powwatka Ridge.

She attended grade school at the Powwatka School, which was located on the ranch. She graduated from Wallowa High School in 1942. She loved singing and playing the piano. She was self-taught and excelled in music.

After graduation, she worked in Wallowa as a bookkeeper, and then married Kenneth Sasser in 1947. In 1948, their son Steve was born. They lived in Milton-Free-water and Wallowa, and then moved in 1960.

They settled in Roseburg, Ore., where Virginia worked as a bookkeeper, and Kenneth in the lumber industry. Virginia worked for Douglas County and was elected Douglas County Treasurer. She loved her work and retired in 1984.

Virginia and Kenneth moved to Florence after retirement. They spent their winters in Yuma, Ariz. Virginia loved the Yuma winters and laughed about how different they were from winters on Powwatka Ridge.

Virginia really enjoyed visiting with family and attending her grandchildren's school and athletic events. She also liked to vacation in Hawaii.

She and Ken always came back to Wallowa for Memorial Day to put flowers on family graves, attend the Wallowa High School reunions and of course visit as many relatives and friends as possible.

Virginia had a great interest in Native American culture and especially Nez Perce history. She loved attending the powwows in Wallowa and knew many of the participants.

After Ken's death in 2000, Virginia moved to Salem, and then Portland, to be near family. She lived in a retirement community and participated in their group choir and other events.

She was known as the piano-playing lady, and entertained community residents in to her 90s. Most people did not know she could not read music and played everything by ear.

Virginia told the community residents about her love for Powwatka and Wallowa County. She showed them her pictures and told them her stories of growing up "in the woods," as she said.

Virginia passed away in her apartment with family present. She was preceded in death by Kenneth; her parents, George and Rae Brooks; and her siblings, Wilma Guillory, Kenneth Brooks, Vera Jean Miller and Nancy Brooks.

She is survived by her son, Steve Sasser (Kathleen); grandchildren, Brooke Berry (Clint), Scott Sasser (Raquel), Matt Sasser (Dianna) and Greg Sasser (Jenni); 12 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

Virginia will be buried with her husband in the Wallowa Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the Wallowa History Center.

Janet Bullat

Jan. 10, 1943 — Sept. 11, 2018

Janet Katherine Bullat was born in Palo Alto, Calif., and passed away after battling cancer for just over a year.

The daughter of John and Katherine Axell, both deceased, Janet attended Los Altos High School, graduating in 1960. She continued her education at San Jose State University, majoring in elementary education with a minor in home economics specializing in textiles.

During her time at San Jose State, she met her future husband, Chris Bullat. After graduation, Janet moved to southern California to teach elementary school for a couple of years before marrying Chris on July 2, 1966 and moving to Eugene, Ore.

In Eugene, Janet taught second and third grade at Howard Elementary for 5 years. She also volunteered her creative textile talents by teaching local 4-H students how to sew.

In 1971, Janet and Chris moved to Bend, Ore.. By November 1979, their daughter Amanda Bullat was born.

During her time in Bend, Janet supported Chris's general contracting business and helped him run an Orange Julius franchise and Janeto's Cafe, both in the Bend River Mall. She also devoted her time to supporting Amanda in all her activities.

Janet was involved in the Central Oregon community as a volunteer with the Start Making A Reader Today (SMART) program at Tumalo Elementary, and as a member of the altar society at St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church.

Janet enjoyed participating in the women's educational home extension group Sun And Snow. She was also one of the original food coordinators for the successful breast cancer awareness and fundraising event, Heaven Can Wait.

In 2008, Janet and Chris moved to Joseph for the mountain views and quiet life. Janet continued her community involvement by volunteering at Enterprise Elementary reading with students through originally the SMART program, volunteering with the local Catholic Church and as a docent at the Joseph Center for Arts and Culture.

In her spare time, Janet enjoyed camping with family, hiking, traveling, sewing, cooking new recipes, capturing all the good times with her camera, and making photo albums to keep the memories alive for years to come.

In addition to Chris and Amanda, Janet is survived by a sister Carol Carlson of Bend, a brother John Axell of Salem, and a handful of nieces and nephews.

There will be a memorial service in Enterprise, 11 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 6 at Catholic Church St Katherine, 301 E Garfield St., Enterprise. A reception will follow.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation in Janet's memory to the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center in Seattle, by calling 206-667-4399.

Huckleberry Roadless Area Outing

FREE!

Saturday, Sept 22 • 9am - 3pm

Ecologist David Mildrexler will lead a hike exploring the Huckleberry Mountain Roadless Area which lies on the north flanks of the Wallowa Mountains. Rich in old growth forest and wildlife habitat, Huckleberry is a critical part of the Eagle Cap Wilderness Additions.

Come explore the area's diverse forests, picturesque views, and beautiful creeks as we hike the Bear Creek Trail. We'll talk about the area's ecology, and how the recently released Blue Mountains Forest Plan proposes to manage our irreplaceable roadless areas.
