An auction fund-raiser was held recently in Imnaha to raise funds for the purchase of much-needed equipment and supplies for the Imnaha Responders teams so they can more effectively respond to medical emergencies. Thanks to the residents of the Imnaha area for their continuing support of this important program. A very special thanks goes to Kendra and Dave Staigle, Bertie LaChance, Peggy Fox and others who made the acquisition of emergency two-way radios possible. And of course, thanks to the dedicated Imnaha Responders for their commitment to assisting local residents and visitors.
