

Salgado to play land trust benefit concert on Nov. 9

Singer impacted Belushi and 'The Blues Brothers.'

Salgado

Curtis Salgado, the 2018 Blues Music Award-winning Soul Blues Male Artist Of The Year, will perform a benefit concert for Wallowa Land Trust 8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 9 at the OK Theatre in downtown Enterprise.

Tickets are available for $35 in advance or $40 at the door. Visit wallowalandtrust.org.

With a career spanning more than three decades, Salgado is a one-of-a-kind talent. His latest full band CD, "The Beautiful Lowdown," was named by Blues Blast Magazine as the 2016 Soul Blues Album Of The Year. His newest release, "Rough Cut," is a stripped down acoustic album with his band guitarist Alan Hager. Salgado and Hager will perform a set of songs from the CD in Enterprise. "We did it for the love of the music," said Salgado.

"This is where our hearts are. These are deep songs that we love to play."

In 1977, comedian and actor John Belushi was in Eugene filming "Animal House." During downtime from production, Belushi caught a typically ferocious Salgado performance and introduced himself during a break.

Once Salgado began sharing some of his blues knowledge, a fast friendship grew. Salgado spent hours playing old records for Belushi, teaching him about blues and R&B.

Belushi used his new awareness to portray "Joliet" Jake Blues in "The Blues Brothers," first as a skit on Saturday Night Live and then a best-selling record album (which was dedicated to Curtis) and finally as a major motion picture (Cab Calloway's character was named Curtis as an homage).

'Coats for Kids' seeking donations

The Wallowa County Rotary Club, in partnership with Building Healthy Families, has new and donated coats available for area children and adults.

Area residents are asked to donate warm coats, gloves and hats for distribution to children and adults in need in Wallowa County. The program typically distributes 200 coats each fall.

In addition to the traditional donated Coats for Kids Program, the Rotary Club and Building Healthy Families distribute new coats through area schools and Head Start. Using input from teachers and social workers, approximately 75 new coats will be distributed this fall.

Individual Wallowa County Rotarians and local benefactors donate roughly $2,000 each year to purchase these coats. Donations of new youth size coats are also welcome; please bring them to Building Healthy Families at 207 NE Park St, Enterprise.

Coat drop boxes are located at Safeway, the Bank of Eastern Oregon and Community Bank branches in Joseph and Enterprise. Wallowa residents are asked to donate coats directly to the Wallowa Resale Store on Main Street. The program is especially in need of child-sized coats this year.

In Enterprise, the coats are available at the Wallowa Valley Professional Building on the corner of First and Greenwood 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. New items will be added weekly as they become available until the end of November.

For more information contact Marilyn Dalton at Building Healthy Families 541-426-9411 or Rob at 541-432-4343.

Healthy Futures dinner and auction is Nov. 10

It's been 23 years since the Wallowa Valley Health Care Foundation sponsored its first Healthy Futures Dinner Auction to raise money to improve local health care.

That first year was a smashing success by all accounts, raising more than $19,000 for a new house for visiting medical residents to stay during their six-week rural rotations.

Last year, the event raised more than $117,000 for a new Genius 3D Mammography, and enthusiasm for supporting health care continues to be strong.

This year, proceeds will go towards a new ultrasound system, at a cost of $170,000, to replace an aging one that will be at its "end of life" in December and no longer serviceable.

"Our mission is to provide premier care, and that means having up-to-date equipment," said Imaging Director Josie Conrad. "The new system offers many new benefits to patients."

The event will be 5 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 10, at Cloverleaf Hall in Enterprise. The event features an elegant three-course sit-down dinner, prepared by Backyard Gardens and served by the Enterprise High School Family, Career and Community Leaders of America students.
