Nancy Jean Ormandy

She married Lawrence W. Evans in 1948. They lived on the Shamrock Farm near Flora, Ore. where she taught school. She and Lawrence moved to The Dalles where they bought a fruit orchard. Lawrence was killed in a traffic accident in 1963. Nancy continued to live in The Dalles with their four children while she worked as a substitute teacher. She continued her studies during the summers and received her B.A. from Eastern Oregon College and her M.A. from Stanford University in 1968.

Nancy married Don Nickerson and moved to Lake Oswego, Ore. in 1966. She taught school nearby in West Linn until she retired in 1992. In 1992 she married Scott Ormandy and moved to a farm near Sheridan, Ore. where she enjoyed her flowers, the wildlife and the landscape of the Coast Range. She continued to live on the farm after Scott's death until she moved to Hillside Senior Center in McMinnville.

In addition to raising her four children, she was very active. Church life was always important to her. She attended First Congregational Church in The Dalles, Lake Grove Presbyterian and First Presbyterian Church of McMinnville. She also enjoyed hiking, skiing, dancing and tennis. She enjoyed reading, belonged to several book clubs and continually looked for ways to experience and learn new things. Her love of travel included trips to Canada, Mexico, Europe, Egypt, Turkey, Peru, China and numerous cruises.

Survivors include her sister Gail Swart; her brother Bill Coffin; her children Linda Ebbert, Byron Evans, Duane Evans and Vince Evans; grandchildren Jordan Kruger, Nanoka Kruger, Tony Evans, Keith Evans and Shane Evans; great-grandchildren Lisa Kruger, Paul Kruger, Serena Kruger and Bronwyn Brown.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Mike Rowley

This week's athlete of the week honor goes to Enterprise teacher and coach Mike Rowley. The teacher was selected for the History Channel's TV show, "Forged in Fire," to compete against three other bladesmiths to hand-forged a knife and a pair of tomahawks. Braving 120-degree room temperatures and multiple TV cameras, Rowley emerged as the show's winner. He received a healthy check as well as the admiration of his students and their parents.
