Tunesmith night Jan. 12 at Sugar Time Bakery

The Wallowa Valley Music Alliance presents another edition of Tunesmith Night, a monthly showcase of original music.

The Saturday, Jan. 12 show features songwriters Mise, Nevada Sowle, and James Dean Kindie. Venue is Sugar Time Bakery, located in the Burnaugh Building on North River Street and provides the perfect atmosphere for our listening audience.

Mise has brought an eclectic pop style to the Northwest since 2012. Nevada Sowle has spent the past few years recording and touring the west coast with acts like Bart Budwig, Joseph Hein, An American Forrest, and Mise. James Dean Kindie is a singer-songwriter from Pendleton. He embraces the "country & western" label in his songs about love and despair while also seeking to expand the notion of what constitutes rural music.

Kindie is also the executive director of the Oregon East Symphony, a contributing columnist for the East Oregonian newspaper, and as publisher of the Northeastern Oregon-centric zine/record label Honey Mushroom.

Tunesmith Night is presented in a round-robin format, with each musician playing a song, then the next taking a turn, creating an interesting and varied performance. Admission is $10 at the door or by season pass. Doors open at 6 p.m., music at 7 p.m., all ages welcome. Sugar Time will have the kitchen open for soups and sandwiches. Bring your own adult beverages.

OBITUARIES

Bert Leroy McCormack
November 29, 1945 — December 12, 2018

Bert Leroy McCormack was born on November 29, 1945, to Roy A. McCormack and Mary Ellen Galloway McCormack in Hillsboro, Oregon.

He completed high school and went into the U.S. Army and did one tour in Vietnam. Upon his discharge he returned to Hillsboro and met his future wife, Barbara Ann Beaman. They were married on July 17, 1970 with their close friends and family members present. They were not blessed with children of their own, but Bert was an awesome uncle to all of the nieces and nephews.

Bert was a rancher in Umatilla County before his health forced him into early retirement. He had spent most of his summers as a boy with his Grandma (Barbara Sasser McCormack) here in Wallowa County and came home to retire in the valley he loved. He passed away due to kidney failure in Providence Saint Mary's Medical Center on December 12, 2018 with his wife by his side.
