IN BRIEF

East Fork Brewing to close its doors

East Fork Brewery announced it will close its doors for good last spring. East Fork Brewery opened in 2017 as a sister facility that was focused on small batch experimental beer and pub food. Increase in sales velocity at Terminal Gravity Brewing, funding decisions, and a close look at cultural intention were cited as reasons for the closure.

"The decision to close came after two months of close review with our team. We want to focus our efforts, both in regard to spending and personnel, at our Enterprise facility," said Kevin Harlander.

Any questions or comments can be addressed by contacting Kevin Harlander at kevinharlander@gmail.com
