

BROWN BAG PROGRAM

Ralph and his Model T

Local engineer and long-time Ford collector Ralph Swinehart will be the Brown Bag program at the Josephy Center for Arts and Culture on Tuesday, Feb. 19. The program is at noon, but come early or stay late and look at the exhibit of pre-World War II photos of the Wallowa country. There are no Model T's in the exhibit, but Ralph promises pictures, and an interesting account of the early automobile industry from a Ford point of view—from the early 1900s to WW II and the Henry Ford's Fordson Tractor. Brown Bag lunches at the Josephy Center are free and open to the public. Bring your lunch or not; we'll have a cup of coffee for you. For more information, contact Rich Wandschneider at 541-432-0505.

THE BIG READ

'A Wizard of Earthsea' book discussion

Fishtrap hosts a noon book discussion on Wednesday, Feb. 20 as part of The Big Read's celebration of Ursula K. Le Guin's classic novel, "A Wizard of Earthsea." A light lunch will be provided as participants discuss main themes in the book including the journey into self, dragons, and the language of fantasy. The event is located at the Fishtrap house: 400 E. Grant St. in Enterprise. "We're scheduling more Big Read events during daylight hours this year," says Fishtrap's Mike Midlo, "Many people can't attend evening events but still want to participate in The Big Read. So we're offering two special programs during the lunch hour including this book discussion at Fishtrap. I hope people come with their ideas and questions about 'A Wizard of Earthsea.'"

The Big Read Book Discussion is part of six weeks of events surrounding the novel, "A Wizard of Earthsea," which is cited as "the best young adult novel of all time," by Entertainment Weekly. Other Big Read events include a movie night featuring the Disney film, "Brave," special guests, and a Wizard's Feast Finale on March 19. All events are free and open to the public. Go to Fishtrap.org for the full schedule.

The Big Read broadens our understanding of the world, our communities, and ourselves through the joy of sharing a good book. Every winter, Fishtrap celebrates one great work of literature by providing events, discussions, and free books to Wallowa County schools, libraries, and community members. The program is an initiative of the National Endowment for the Arts and is supported locally by neighborhood businesses and individual donations. Special thanks to community sponsors Community Bank, Pacific Power, and the Oregon Arts Commission.

Enterprise FCCLA puts together raffle to help 'Days for Girls'

Education Matters. Period. This is the theme for Jada Gray, Rosie Movich-Fields, and Savanna Vaughn's Enterprise High School FCCLA project. They decided to raise funds for Days for Girls, an international nonprofit that "... increases access to menstrual care and education by developing global partnerships, cultivating social enterprises, mobilizing volunteers, and innovating sustainable solutions that shatter stigmas and limitations for woman and girls."

They learned that many girls in developing countries miss a week or more of school every month because they do not have the menstrual supplies they need.

They set a goal to raise enough money to purchase ten menstrual kits, which cost $25 a piece for materials and distribution. To reach their goal, the girls put on a raffle, where tickets and donations exceeded their goal, raising $277 which they sent to Days for Girls. They received local donations from Gypsy Java, Jake Kurtz, Wild Carrot and family members.

The second part of their project is to better understand if girls in their community have adequate access to resources and supplies. They plan to submit a proposal to the school board to fund menstrual supplies in the school bathrooms. If you are interested in learning more about Days for Girls, please go to daysforgirls.org.
