Dear Santa,
My name is Maggie and I'm ten years old. I am learning to play a recorder and ukulele. I am grateful for books. If books weren't invented we wouldn't know about you or the types of bugs or how to write or read. That's scary to me. How are Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vickson, Comet, Cupid, Donner, Bliston, and Ruldolph. What I want for Christmas is a blanket. I would use it when I'm sick. Can you please get Tegan a Hatchimal? I am looking forward to Christmas, I would like a phone or a computer. I would use either one the same way. If it is a phone I would like a simple iphone with a glittery moving case on it. If it was a computer I would like one that can turn into a tablet. I would watch Netflix on it and listen to music. It would be great if you could help the Indian people and give them clean water, good food, and shelter. Thank you for the tiger last year. It is very fun to play with. Hope you bring me something as exciting as that tiger.
Love, Preslie

Dear Santa,
How is the North Pole? Is it cold? How many feet of snow do you and your elves have at the North Pole? Is it fun making toys and riding your sleigh and is it fun watching your reindeer pull the sleigh? Thank you for bringing me presents every year. What I want for Christmas is an American Pit Bull Border Collie dog. Can you bring my mom a new dishwasher and can you bring my dad a dozen or two ducks?
Sincerely, Quenton
