FISHTRAP'S BIG READ: NEA BIG READ FINALE: Key-note address with author

Chinese dinner to mark opening of hotel

OUT OF THE PAST

Compiled by Cheryl Jenkins

100 YEARS AGO

March 3, 1921
 Jim Livermore, who bought the City hotel a few weeks ago, invited some 50 guests to the opening, at which he served a great dinner. Two long tables were spread in the dining room and every seat was filled. Mr. Livermore was born in California of Chinese parents and so is an American citizen. It was proposed that he prepare a real Chinese dinner some time, when all his guests would return and enjoy the novelty.

There will be a dance next Wednesday night for members of the I.O.O.F. and Rebekahs in the Odd Fellows hall. Music will be furnished by the high school orchestra.
