

Wallowa County Fair 2021

Photos by Bill Bradshaw/Wallowa County Chieftain

A lot of work goes into preparing a market steer to be shown at the Wallowa County Fair. Here, Mace McLean, of Prineville, sprays an adhesive on a steer's tail to improve its appearance Thursday, Aug. 12, 2021.

Edith, left, and Greta Kennedy, of Wallowa, show off the cupcakes and cookies they entered and won with in the open class exhibits in the Cloverleaf Hall on Saturday, Aug. 14, 2021, at the Wallowa County Fair.
