Wallowa County passes 600 COVID-19 cases

Chieftain staff

ENTERPRISE — The month of September saw slightly fewer COVID-19 cases in Wallowa County than August, which had recorded the highest monthly total to date.

October, though, got off to a potentially rough start — and showed another milestone.

The Oregon Health Authority reported four COVID-19 cases in the county on Oct. 1. With those cases being part of the September tally, the month ended with 163 cases.

Monday, Oct. 4, OHA reported 20 more cases of COVID-19 over the weekend, which brought the overall total now 19 months into the pandemic to 602. There were no new deaths in the latest report, keeping the number of fatalities due to COVID-19 at 12.

Wallowa County's September total — and daily average of 5.43 cases per day — were just below

August, which saw 180 cases and a rate of 5.81 per day.

Still, both months saw more cases in the county than what was recorded during the first year of the pandemic, and the combined total of the two months — 343 — was more than the combined total of cases by the end of July.

Hospitalizations in the state due to COVID-19 have inched downward, and the Monday report shows there were 769, with 207 being in the ICU.

In Region 9, however, OHA data showed 37 hospitalizations due to COVID-19 on both Oct. 3 and 4, a pandemic high.

The COVID-19 vaccination rate in the county has neared 55%, per OHA data. Through Oct. 2, a total of 3,913 people had received at least one dose, with the rate being 54.7%. Of those 18 and older, its, 3,738 people, or 64.9% of that group.

We do not have the words to express our gratitude to the many people who have shown us such care and love over Alvy's death. The many texts, emails, calls, cards, flowers, and food as well as the loving people who came out in the wind and rain at Alvy's memorial service to support us in the loss of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, meant so very much and were a great comfort. A special thanks to Pastor Steven Kliever and members of the Lostine Presbyterian Church, Central Copy, Enterprise Flower Shop and Bollman Funeral Home. All were so very caring and helpful.

MANY THANKS TO YOU ALL! ALVY E. ROBB JR.
Judith, Leah, Jamie and William Robb Sept. 4, 1947 - Sept. 8, 2021

With someone passing who was dear to our hearts, so many kindnesses have been shown to us. There have been phone calls, visits, food, cards, memorials, beautiful flowers, and help with the service. This has been a time of reflection of our mother's life and we are so thankful for the many ways you have helped honor her. A special thank you to Dr. Maly, Dr. Powers, Nora Stangel and all the health care workers that provided such wonderful care.
