ARE YOU READY FOR HALLOWEEN?

By Lisa Britton
Go! Magazine

Businesses, organizations and volunteers across Eastern Oregon are making sure children have ample opportunities to find candy and fun this Halloween. Many towns are organizing trick-or-treating or recruiting locals to decorate their cars for a trunk-or-treat. Some places are haunted just for Halloween — Churchill's studios, the Sumpter Dredge, the library in Stanfield, the corn maze in Echo. Explore the following pages for information on celebrations that span Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
