Doris J. Tsiatsos

May 30, 1931 - January 1, 2022

Doris J. Tsiatsos, beloved wife of Greg, of Starkey, died January 1, 2022, at a local care facility. She was 90 years of age. A memorial gathering will be announced in the spring to celebrate her life. Arrangements are entrusted to Daniels-Knopp Funeral, Cremation & Life Celebration Center.

She was born, Doris Jean Gray on May 30, 1931 in Wallowa, to Lloyd and Eunice (Scott) Gray. At the age of 7, her father bought her a violin and lessons to play it, to entice her to want to join the rest of the family in moving to La Grande. It was the beginning of a lifelong love of music. Doris was raised and educated in La Grande, first at Greenwood School and later graduated from La Grande High School with the class of 1949. After her graduation, she married Greg Tsiatsos at her parents' home in La Grande. She was not accustomed to the many and varied household duties of a housewife and ranch wife but she embraced the adventure and became a very proficient cook and homemaker and even helped Greg with the livestock. She was an accomplished seamstress and made her family's clothes. Doris was very active in the Grande Ronde Symphony for most of her life and was the concert master for many years and donated her valued violin to the symphony.

Surviving family members include her husband of 72 years, Greg Tsiatsos of Starkey; daughter, Sharon Crampton of Starkey; brother and sister-in-law, Don and Brenda Gray of Vancouver, Washington; grandchildren, Rhonda Ross, Jason Crampton, and twins, Christopher Tsiatsos and Deena Haun; a great-grandson, Caden Ross, to whom she gave her Cadillac for Christmas. Besides her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Deena Hale; her son, Grant Tsiatsos and her sister, Barbara Gray.

Friends who wish may make contributions in memory of Doris Tsiatsos to her beloved, Grande Ronde Symphony.

Wayne S. Wolfe
August 27, 1918 - December 31, 2021

Wayne S. Wolfe was born in Wallowa, OR, on August 27, 1918 to Elisha and Mary Wolfe. He attended a one room schoolhouse on Allen Canyon Loop through the 8th grade, and graduated from Wallowa High School in 1937.

Wayne worked on his family's ranch until age 21 when he married Verla Thompson on November 2, 1939 in Weiser, Idaho. Wayne went to work for the mill in Wallowa and then moved to La Grande where he worked for Union Pacific Railroad. Wayne and Verla had two children, Alan and Frances.

Wayne was drafted into the Army in June 1944, when Frances was just a baby. He spent 18 weeks in Mineral Wells, TX, in training, then was sent to Biloxi, MS, and back to Amarillo, TX, where he trained in Airplane Mechanics. He contracted rheumatic fever while in Amarillo and spent a month in the hospital. When he was discharged from the hospital he was sent to Ft. Benning, GA, where he was part of the Air/Sea Rescue and then to Myrtle Beach, SC, for the remainder of his military service. He was only able to visit home twice in his two years in the service. After returning from his military service, he and Verla parted, and Wayne moved home to Wallowa County.

Wayne met Edna June Audet at a dance at the Edelweiss dance hall at Wallowa Lake. They were married December 3, 1947, and began their married life determined to build a ranch of their own. They rented the Woods place outside of Lostine and their first son, Gordon was born. A few years later they bought a place outside of Wallowa from which they would grow and expand their ranch. A second son, David, was born completing their family.

Wayne spent his years raising his family and working hard at building their ranch. They bought range, crop and timberland over the years. Wayne spent many hours riding the range and spotting places where ponds could be developed and then proceeded to build them. This made for excellent summer range for the cattle. The ranch raises cattle, grain and hay and also has a nice stand of timber on the range. Wayne continued to work ground and work with the cattle well into his 90s, including continuing to sort cattle when he was 94.

Although he was very busy with his ranch life he found time to be involved in the community.

Wayne was President of the Wallowa School Board, and was able to hand diplomas to both of his sons as well as numerous other graduates of Wallowa High School. He was a member of the Federal Land Bank Board and served many years on the Wallowa County Grain Growers Board. Wayne and his son, Gordon were Oregon Wheat League Conservation Farmers of the Year in 1983.

Wayne died peacefully in his sleep on December 31, 2021. He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers, Elvyn and Bill; sisters, Lorraine and Frances; his wife, Edna June and his youngest son, David. He is survived by his son, Alan and wife Sharon; and his daughter, Frances of Boise. His son, Gordon and wife, Rebecca of Wallowa. 6 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

Services are Saturday, January 22 at 1:00 p.m., at St. Katherine's Catholic Church in Enterprise, OR.
