Teddy Ben Daggett

November 22, 1937 - January 19, 2022

Teddy Ben Daggett, of Joseph, Oregon, was born November 22, 1937 in Joseph, to Henry Ward Beecher Daggett and LoVisa (Sumpter) Daggett. They lived on Marr Flat until he was 6 and they moved to town so he could go to school. God called him to his heavenly home on January 19, 2022. He died peacefully at home.

His father passed away when he was only 7 and he helped his mother all he could until her death in 1975. During his school years, he set pins at the Joseph Bowling Alley, raised hogs, worked for Harley Tucker on his ranch, and at the grocery store for Carlyle Roundy until graduation. After graduation, he worked for Chief Joseph Lumber Co.

In 1959, he married Julia Catherine (Marko) Daggett of St. Charles, Michigan, and they had Tammy Elaine Daggett and Brian Ted Daggett. Julia Kay passed away in 1996.

In 1976, Ted went to work at Kilgore's Auto Parts in Joseph and worked there until he got a job with Wallowa County as Wallowa County Weed Supervisor. He worked there until a chemical accident left him with permanent lung damage in 1997. He loved helping other people and neighbors all he could. He also loved hunting, getting wood, and the outdoors.

On August 30, 1997, he married Virginia (Guida) Daggett of Enterprise and they had a wonderful life together. They enjoyed traveling, hunting, and enjoying their children and grandchildren.

Ted is survived by his wife, Virginia; his daughter, Tammy (Daggett) Davilla and her husband, Larry, of Baker City; grandsons Bryce VanDyke and Brett VanDyke; son Brian Daggett and wife, Shelley, of LaPine; and granddaughter, Kelsie Daggett. He is also survived by 3 step-daughters: Barbie Windsor (Don Renfroe), Columbia City, Brenda Kaneshiro (Denny), Roseburg, and Deena Hodges (Benjie) of Rocky Mount, Va.; step-grandchildren: Terry Windsor, Elijah, Tabitha, and Esther Kaneshiro, Elisabeth Mooney, Danny Taylor and Chelsea Weaver; great-granddaughters: Carleigh Weaver and Braelyn Weaver, and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife Julia; brother Bee Daggett (Alta); sisters Gladys Marks (Wayne), and Fern Arnold (Gene).

A memorial service celebrating his life will be held February 5 at 11 a.m. at the Enterprise Christian Church, 85035 Joseph Hwy 82.
