The management of Community hall offered a prize for the most graceful waltzers in the county. The judges found difficulty in reaching a decision, but finally the award went to F. W. DeBoie of Elgin, who danced with Mrs. Stevenson.

Nina Warnock has been named junior commander of the county's new White Cross chapter, the new national hospital association for providing hospitals which shall give free care to the worthy poor.

Lostine is heading the county in debate again this year by virtue of decisive victories over both Joseph teams. Floyd Moffit and Maxine Pearce defeated Henry Swartwood and Douglas Wilson, and on the same night Harley Allen and Wayne Crow defeated Ted Thomas and Donald Beith.

A.B. Stockdale and Alfred Zollman have recently added to their fur farm in Joseph the rarest of all fur-bearing animals in the world — 19 pairs of the rare South American chinchillas. The animals will arrive in Joseph by moving van next week and visitors are cordially invited to call at the farm and see them.

In a one-sided game last week the Enterprise volleyball team won an easy victory over the Joseph team. Laura Jean pace, with her deadly net play, was partly responsible for the high score of 50 to 13.

The district level FFA Creed Speaking Contest was held in Enterprise last week. Winner of this event was Rick Swart of the Enterprise chapter. Cliff Kiser of Joseph was second and Rita Coles of Union took third place.

The Wallowa County CowBelles enjoyed their annual family potluck with about 80 persons present. President Joanne Lathrop stated that she had received many thank you notes from Wallowa County servicemen who had received the CowBelle beef jerky at Christmas time.

All of the churches of Wallowa will sponsor an emergency fire shower for the Ted Landis family who recently lost their home by fire. There will be a money shower and anyone can give through a church representative.

An application for a 50-lot subdivision, The Highlands, planned atop the west hills overlooking Enterprise, was approved by the city's planning commission.

Motorists near Water Canyon on Hwy 82 were given a rare treat when a cow moose stayed near the road for several hours over the weekend. Game biologist Pat Matthews guessed that the moose came from Washington.

Enterprise Boy Scout Donald Hahn, 16, recently donated two handmade picnic tables to Enterprise High School and two benches to the Wallowa County Health Department as part of his quest for the prestigious Eagle Scout award.

Jesse Morgan of Enterprise placed third in the state in the Oregon State Elks Hoop Shoot held in Salem. She tied with 17 of 25 free throws and made 7 out of 10 in the shoot-off to win.

Eugene Everett Frazier

May 22, 1958 - January 30th 2022

Gene passed away in his home in Spokane, WA. He was 63. He was the only son of former residents of Enterprise, Jim and Mary Frazier.

He graduated from Enterprise High School in 1976 and immediately joined the U.S. Army to serve as a power generator equipment operator serving in Germany. Upon his return to the states he worked in many interesting fields, especially those that showcased his talent for the arts, most of all woodworking. He enjoyed traveling and never staying too long in one place. He would leave a mark wherever he landed.

Gene is preceded in death by his parents, Jim and Mary. He is survived by a daughter, Katie, of Alaska; 2 sisters, Diana Fisher of Clarkston, WA, Brenda (Kenny) Arthur of Colfax, WA, and many cousins, nieces and nephews.

He will be laid to rest in the Frazier family plot in Wallowa at a later date.

DEATH NOTICES

Doug Batten

Doug Batten, 74, of Enterprise, died Feb. 11, 2022, at St. Charles Medical Center in Bend. His remains will be interred in a national cemetery at a later date. Bollman Funeral Home is entrusted with the arrangements.

Charlotte Stonebrink

Charlotte Stonebrink, 90, of Wallowa, died Feb. 6, 2022, in Yuma, Arizona. Graveside services will be held at a later date. Bollman Funeral Home is entrusted with the arrangements.
