

Tammy Jones to resign from Joseph City Council

Chieftain staff

JOSEPH — Councilor Tammy Jones is expected to submit her resignation from the Joseph City Council and have it accepted when the council meets Thursday, March 3.

Jones, who works as superintendent of the Wallowa School District, cited “recent changes in my work commitments and responsibilities” as reasons for resigning in the letter dated

Feb. 15 that she submitted to the city.

Thursday’s meeting is open to the public at the Joseph Community Events Center. People also may attend via Zoom by visiting <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/88138754137?pwd=Z3c4WEFxUzdWLT3RqdzhSbkFPSFRodz09>. The meeting ID is 881 3875 4137. The passcode is 269827. To attend by telephone, call 1-253-215-8782.

In another matter, the council will hold a public hearing and consider a request by city resident Greg Hennes for a zoning change on his property from residential to commercial. City residents are welcome to speak out on the issue.

The zoning change, according to documents filed with the city that accompanied the agenda, are for the construction of a project that would include a public bathhouse, sauna, cabins, guest lodge, kitchen facilities and workforce housing. The now-vacant lot consists of 3.23 acres.

In other business, the council expects to consider:

- An ordinance to establish a five-to-seven-member city Planning Commission.
- An ordinance to grant to Zippy Fiber Northwest a franchise for telephone and other communications purposes.

• A presentation from Elkhorn Media on its radio and Facebook services.

• A snow-removal plan with a map detailing the highest priorities for snow plowing when 4 inches of fresh snow accumulates on city streets.

• A discussion to form a steering committee for the proposed Daggett

Sports Complex.

• Street closures for vendors for July 27-31 for the Chief Joseph Days Rodeo.

• Street closures for vendors for Aug. 26-27 for the Wallowa Mountain Cruise.

• A presentation from Brad Baird of Anderson Perry on ongoing public works projects.

• A presentation from the Oregon Department of Transportation on plans to revamp sidewalks and ramps this summer.

IN BRIEF

Apply for Soroptimist Large Grant Community Project Award

ENTERPRISE — Applications for Soroptimist International of Wallowa County’s Large Grant Community Project Award are now being accepted.

The project, according to Soroptimist, should support the group’s mission of “improving the lives of women and girls through programs leading to social and economic empowerment.”

The Large Grant for Community Projects, which is $5,000, will be awarded to one or more Wallowa County organizations “primarily to fund cultural, educational, civic activities or charitable causes. Programs supporting the enhancement of community health, education, the environment, or the advancement of the status of women and children will be considered,” a press release from Soroptimist states.

Requests between $1,000 and $5,000 will be considered, and more than one project may be awarded grant money. Individuals are not eligible.

The application deadline is April 15. Applications can be picked up at the Soroptimist Thrift Shop on Fridays or Saturdays, by contacting Ann Browder at 541-398-0449, or by visiting wallowacountysoroptimist.org.

Completed applications can be turned back into the Thrift Shop, or returned to: Soroptimist, PO Box 127, Enterprise, Oregon 97828.

For more information, call Browder or email aebrowder@gmail.com.
