

HERMISTON

The Easter Bunny won't be getting any sleep this spring as he's busy scattering thousands of filled eggs in Hermiston for kids age 10 and younger to hunt for in the dark.

The lights go dark for the Flashlight Easter Egg Hunt on Friday, April 15, at 8 p.m. at Butte Park, 1245 NW Seventh St. The free event, coordinated by Hermiston Parks & Recreation, is sponsored by Rogers Toyota of Hermiston.

Kids are to bring their own basket and flashlight. Parents may accompany their children but kids should gather their own eggs.

16. Hunts will be divided by age groups, ages newborn to 12.

LA GRANDE

The Riverside Park Easter egg hunt in La Grande is canceled this year — organizers had to decide in late January whether or not to organize the event. They hope to return the hunt in 2023. But, don't worry, there are other options.

On Friday, April 15, beginning at 4 p.m., Grande Ronde Retirement Residence, 1809 Gekeler Lane, invites kids ages 1-12 to hunt eggs, snack on hot dogs and chips and have their picture taken with the Easter Bunny.

For a fun spin on the traditional Easter activity, come to the underwater egg hunt at Veterans' Memorial Pool, at Pioneer Park on Palmer Avenue, on Friday, April 15. Admission is $5 to swim and dive for eggs and cash them in for prizes. The event will be divided into age groups: 6 months to 3 years at 7 p.m., 4-6 years at 7:30 p.m., and 7-9 years at 8 p.m.

MILTON-FREEWATER

The Milton-Freewater Kiwanis Club is gearing up for the annual Easter egg hunt. The free event is Saturday, April 16, at 9 a.m. at Yantis Park, 200 DeHaven St.

And for some picture-perfect moments, be sure to catch The Easter Bunny is Coming. It's a snap — no reservations are required. Just show up and get in line Saturday, April 16, 11 a.m.-1 p.m. at May Park, 180 SE Isaac Ave. The cost is $10 for up to three digital photos.

PILOT ROCK

Community Easter egg hunts will be held for babes in arms through students in fifth grade. People should gather Saturday, April 16, 9 a.m. at Pilot Rock Elementary School, 200 Vern McGowan Drive, and the nearby Pilot Rock City Park.

Candy and donations can be dropped off at Pilot Rock City Hall. For questions, call 541-443-2811.

RICHLAND

The Richland chapter of Creating Memories will welcome children to Hewitt Park for an Easter egg hunt at 1 p.m. Saturday, April 16. Organizer Steve Sharp said this year will feature two designated sections — the youngest children will start just inside the gate, and older kids will hunt eggs at the far end of the park.

"It's less of a walk for families with the littlest ones and it's not as steep," he said. "The far end provides more of a challenge for the older ones, and there are a lot more places to hide eggs."

Prizes this year include games, children's toys, maybe a few fishing poles, and lots of treats.

STANFIELD

Kids are invited to a free community Easter egg hunt coordinated by Stanfield Moose Lodge No. 920. The event is Saturday, April 16, 10 a.m. at Coe Park, on West Coe Avenue by the railroad tracks.
