

Enyart charged with first-degree murder

OUT OF THE PAST

Compiled by Cheryl Jenkins

100 YEARS AGO

May 11, 1922

An indictment charging George Enyart with first degree murder was returned by the grand jury. Lawrence King died at Wallowa last week as the result of a blow inflicted by a rock on his right temple. As the result of taking poison, Maggie Alice Carper, 14, died Monday evening at the home of her father, J. K. Carper in Promise. An investigation disclosed that the girl had been the victim of melancholia which led her to take the poison with probable intent to end her life. E.J. Conkelman is installing a radio receiving set, powerful enough to listen in on broadcasting as far away as Los Angeles and Denver. Mr. Conkelman found that his aerial was too short so received permission to use the top of the Enterprise hotel for one end of the line.

Gloria 'Ann' (Ratcliff) Payne

June 2, 1936 - April 11, 2022

Ann Payne died peacefully on April 11, 2022, at her daughter Jill's home in Redmond, Oregon, surrounded by her family. She was 85. A celebration of Ann's life will be held at 3 p.m. May 28 at the Enterprise Community Church.

Ann was born June 2, 1936, in Enterprise, Oregon, to Leland and Erna Ratcliff. Ann spent her childhood in Enterprise where she graduated from Enterprise High School. She was an only child whose father taught her to love the wilderness by taking her hiking and fishing, while her mother shared her love of shopping and travel. Ann went on to attend Oregon State University, where she was active in her sorority and graduated with her bachelor's degree. After graduating, Ann reconnected with her childhood friend Tom Payne and they were married on Jan. 7, 1959, in California.

In 1961 Tom, Ann and their young son, Brad, moved to La Grande, where their daughters, Jill and Karen, were born. Ann stayed home to raise their children for several years before returning to work as a librarian at Island City Elementary School until her retirement. Ann was always passionate about books and reading and was especially excited to share this joy with her students. With both Tom and Ann working on a school schedule, their family was able to spend their summers at Wallowa Lake playing on the water and enjoying time at their family cabin.

During their years of retirement, Tom and Ann (and dog Jiggs) traveled extensively with their Good Sam group before settling into a snowbird lifestyle between Gold Canyon, Arizona, and Wallowa Lake. Ann was a driving force in continuing the tradition of family summers at Wallowa Lake with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She loved sharing the cabin with family and friends, frequently inviting grandchildren to stay for weeks at a time. She enjoyed spending her time playing on the lake, hunting for mushrooms and huckleberries, reading to her grandchildren, as well as having tiddly time with her many friends. Ann gathered and maintained friendships from childhood, college, Arizona and her travels with Tom. She could hardly walk through town without seeing a friend to chat with.

Ann had an unsurpassable love and kindness for her family and friends. She shaped the lives of many and will be dearly missed. Her enthusiasm and joy will be passed on through her sister-in-law, Lora Lee Evans; children, Brad (Janell) Payne, Jill (Brent) Goold and Karen Payne; grandchildren, Laurel (Michael), Kyle (Samantha), Ryan (Kayla), Steve (Collete), Jordon (Adrianna), Jillian, Megan and Nick; and great-grandchildren, Launa, Athena, Maya, Beckett and Amelia.

50 YEARS AGO

May 11, 1972

Student body elections for the 1972-73 school year have been completed with Carol Rathbun (Joseph), Vin Searles (Enterprise) and Rod Riggs (Wallowa) selected as student body president of their schools. Joyce Tippett bowled an amazing 630 series from scratch at the Elks Bowling Visitation at La Grande. She had games of 223, 233 and 174. The 1972 "Father of the Year" for Wallowa County is Mr. Roy W. Daggett of Joseph, it was announced by the Wallowa County CowBelles, sponsor of the contest. Jennifer Hawkins, from Flora, has won third place in the state for fifth graders entering a poster to the Oregon TB and Respiratory Disease Association urging people to stop smoking.

25 YEARS AGO
