Fire damages ice house in Wallowa

OUT OF THE PAST

Compiled by Cheryl Jenkins

100 YEARS AGO
 May 18, 1922
 A fire of unknown origin started in Wolfe's ice house. This building is in the heart of the business section of Wallowa, and but for the efficient service of the fire department, much damage would have been done. Frank Cook, who supplies the town with much of its garden truck during the summer, is trying an experiment. He has planted 17 hills of cucumbers and 22 hills of tomatoes, all under the cover of canvas which will remain throughout the summer. Basketball coach A. B. Amomino invited seven of his high school players to a waffle jamboree last week.

They consumed 215 waffles, about 27 for each. The boys were Jordan, Ratcliff, Burnett, Tippet, Lockwood, Clayton and Knapp.

grandstand which will seat 700-800.

 The Wallowa County Junior Women's Club's community improvement project, the old Chief Joseph gravesite at the foot of Wallowa Lake, which they have been working on for the last ten years, was judged the best such project in Oregon by metropolitan and non-metropolitan women's clubs. Caprice Shortridge and Carma Williamson have been chosen from JHS to attend the 31st annual Girls' State Session at Willamette University in Salem.

 The only individual award given at the annual EHS art show, the People's Choice award, went to Naomi Roberts for an untitled oil painting of a woman in a colorful shawl. WHS alumnus will gather for a night of socializing for the 77th consecutive year. 250-300 people are expected to attend. Alumni secretary-historian Carol Jean Conrad says that the annual event is the longest continuously operating annual affair of its kind in Oregon. EHS's stellar art teaching partnership will be split up with the retirement of elementary art teacher Larry Wishart. He was given the "Heart and Soul" award from his brother, high school art teacher Gary Wishart, at the EHS arts award program.

Mary "Lorraine" (Christman) Crawford

April 7, 1937 - May 12, 2022

Mary "Lorraine" (Christman) Crawford, resident of Joseph, passed to heaven on May 12, 2022, at her home. Born April 7, 1937, in Baker, to Fred and Lillian (Transue) Christman, Lorraine grew up in North Powder, graduating from North Powder High school in 1955 and completing business school in Baker.

She met Gerald Crawford of Baker in 1955, and they married on Oct. 5, 1956. The couple moved to Pilot Rock in 1957 where they started their family. When Gerald returned to college in 1962, Lorraine worked at Payless Drug and the EOC registrar's office. Gerald was hired to teach by the Pine Eagle School District in December of 1965, and the family moved to Halfway. For the next 20 years, Lorraine dedicated her life to her family, supporting them in all their endeavors and annually raising a huge garden and preserving food. The family enjoyed countless days outdoors, camping, snowmobiling, fishing and hunting.

In the summer of 1976, a teaching position for Gerald moved the family to Joseph and Lorraine to the life of work outside her home once again. She began "in the potato shed" but soon moved on to employment more suited to her abilities as one of two employees of the newly opened Pioneer Federal Savings and Loan in Enterprise. As the bank grew, she moved from teller to loan officer, helping many locals finance their homes and befriending most of her customers. Over the years that institution, currently Umpqua Bank, became Pioneer Bank and then Sterling before Lorraine retired in 1994.

Thereafter, Lorraine and Gerald enjoyed a happy and fulfilling life traveling extensively across North America, remaining active in the community and attending every sporting event and activity in which their grandchildren participated that they possibly could. They continued to attend every JV and varsity basketball game of the Enterprise teams for the next 20 years, and Lorraine continued this even after Gerald's death in the spring of 2021.

Lorraine lived a life of joyful service. A member of the Eastern Star for over 50 years, she served in various state offices and committees and was an avid supporter of the local Rainbow, Masons and Shriners. She was also a member of Beta Sigma Phi and the Enterprise Community Church. Through all these organizations and on her own, Lorraine volunteered countless hours toward a multitude of local service projects.

Lorraine was preceded in death by her husband, Gerald, and her twin brother, Larry Christman. Survivors include her sons, Michael (Tammy) of Enterprise and Darryl (Tammy) of Cocolalla; grandchildren, Michael "Bo" (Catherine) Crawford of Las Vegas, Kyle (Kate) Crawford of Enterprise, Chelsey (Jed) of Tacoma, and Brandi (Joey) Kent of Post Falls; and eight great-grandchildren.

Graveside services for Lorraine will be held at Prairie Creek Cemetery at 10 a.m. Saturday, May 21, followed by a gathering with light refreshments for close friends and family at the Enterprise Community Church. In lieu of flowers please make a contribution to the Wallowa County Healthcare Foundation.
