

Hunter not guilty of having elk meat

OUT OF THE PAST

Compiled by Cheryl Jenkins

100 YEARS AGO

June 29, 1922

Crawford Hunter was found not guilty on charges of having elk meat in his possession. Witnesses testified in court that the meat was beef, and one piece was pork.

The only formal Fourth of July celebration in the county will be that at Flora, with sports and program and general good time. A considerable part of the people living in the valley expect to spend the Fourth at the head of the lake. Elgin is putting on a pretentious celebration with horse races and sports.

Another auto stage line between Joseph and La Grande is to be started by Klein and Smith of Enterprise. One car is a Hudson and the other a Willys.

75 YEARS AGO

July 3, 1947

Orren Foster has been moving his plumbing and heating merchandise into his new building next to the post office and will hold open house Saturday. The building is an attractive addition to Enterprise, particularly to the block facing the court house on River street.

The county court has eliminated six of the county's 20 voting precincts by merging them with adjacent precincts. This will result in substantial savings in election costs by eliminating election officials and special printing costs.

The 200-acre ranch belonging to Raymond Abrahamson on upper Prairie creek has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. George Patex of Seattle. They plan to convert the place into a dude ranch.

50 YEARS AGO

June 29, 1972

An estimated 110,000 acres in Wallowa County are infested with grasshoppers. A vast spray program is expected to get underway during the next week or so. The northern part of the county will get the first spray. Most of the application will be done by a fleet of B-17's dumping undiluted malathion, 8 oz. per acre.

Barbara Fredrick, daughter of Judge and Jessie Tippett, will hold an open house at her new gift shop, named "Tippi", on the Hurricane Creek highway. Her works are presently being displayed in some of the finest galleries in California.

25 YEARS AGO

June 26, 1997

The bed races proved to be a major attraction at the first running of Summerfest, hosted by the Enterprise Merchants. First place went to R Pizza Parlor and second place to Stockman's Tavern.

"Lucky", a black lab owned by Brian and Tami Perren of Enterprise gave birth to 17 puppies Sunday. Her feat may tie the largest litter on record.

Former EHS track standout David Melville, Jr., maintained his lead over several veteran runners to emerge from a field of 79 contestants to win the Alder Slope 10K run Saturday.

DEATH NOTICE

Bill Butner

A celebration of life for Bill Butner will take place July 15 from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Hurricane Creek Grange Hall in Joseph. Butner died Jan. 20, 2022. He was raised in Wallowa County and died in Bend. Instead of flowers a donation to Healing Reins Therapeutic Riding Center in honor of Butner can be made. Food provided by Jeff Brookshire.

Myrna (Carper) Journot

October 13 1939 - June 14, 2022

Myrna Carper Journot passed away in her sleep on Tuesday, June 14, 2022, at her home in Wallowa, Oregon. She leaves behind her husband of 63 years, Robert Journot; four sons, Terry and fiancé Felisa, LeRoy and Lance, all of Wallowa, and Tracy and wife Mindy of Pueblo, Colorado; eight grandchildren, Nicole, Jordan, Zack, Katelynn, Lauryn, Connor, Marcus and Savannah; and step-granddaughters, Maci and Kailua.

Myrna was born Oct. 13, 1939, to Orval Carper and Myra Gorbett, in Promise, Oregon, joining older sister, Orvalla, who preceded her in death in 2017. She attended the Promise School until the age of 12 when her family moved to Portland, Oregon. The family eventually moved to Hermiston, Oregon, from Bend, Oregon, where Myrna graduated high school. She and Robert were married in Hermiston in 1959. Myrna followed her husband in the sheet metal industry until they formed their own company in 1970, naming it after a favorite bird of Myrna's: "Road-Runner Sheetmetal Inc."

Myrna loved to travel, and as a guest of the Carrier Company she visited Russia, Sweden, Hawaii and the Philippines. She took delight in bringing souvenirs home to her sons. She earned the title "Mama J" due to the fact that their home was always full of boys, being adopted by several of the boys, and vice versa.

As purple was a favorite color, Myrna enjoyed purple iris and lilacs, along with buttercups, Indian paintbrush and Easter lilies. Her hobbies included sewing, watching the sunset with the deer and elk coming to water, picking mushrooms, hunting and taking her grandchildren fishing at her pond. She delighted in taking young animals to nearby schools and retirement centers for students and residents to hold. Children who might not have had a Christmas without Myrna were on the receiving end of her generosity. Many friends and family received gifts of handmade blankets, canned fruit or a handwritten note that was cherished, as she was known for her beautiful handwriting.

Myrna liked country music and dancing at the grange in Promise. She and Bob would trade TV time: he would watch Westerns or the news, and she would watch "Jeopardy" and the "Wheel of Fortune." Playing cards with family and friends was something Myrna delighted in, beating Terry and Lance in Crazy Rummy recently.

As a devoted housewife and mom, she was kept busy transporting her four sons back and forth to baseball games, swim lessons, sledding and other activities. But she always provided a shoulder to lean on, and then her sons knew they were expected to listen to what she had to say, even if she could be a little bit stubborn and feisty.

After retiring from their business, Myrna and Bob built a home in Promise, where they lived until 2017 when they moved to Wallowa to be closer to doctors and friends. Myrna continued to be active in the Memorial Day Reunion every year in Promise and Wallowa.

A celebration of life for Myrna will be Saturday, July 9, at 1 p.m. at the Wallowa Assembly of God Church, Wallowa, Oregon.
