He Could Play In Any Flat If He Only Had The Key

THE clavichord is Charles Ray's latest hobby. He has graduated from chop-sticks-as in the above picture-to Chopin; and daily devotes self to practice, wandering from bar to bar, drinking in measure after measure—meaning music, of course. At present he has been trying his hand at some thematic melodies for his latest Paramount-Arteraft nicture, "The Egg trate Wallop"
