RUMORS OF SALE OF BOSTON REDS GIVES RISE TO NEW GOSSP

By Henry L. Fendell

New York, April 30.—Recent thrum that the Red Sox will be sold is said to have been started when the club entered the pennant race about a month ago. The result has been a rise in the club's value, and the directors are said to be satisfied with the way the club is playing. The Sox have recently been playing well, and have won several games in a row. The club is said to be worth about $500,000, and the directors are said to be satisfied with the way the club is playing.

POCKETING FOR THE DODGERS

Portland, May 1.—The Portland Bays, who have been playing well in the Pacific Coast League, are said to be looking for a new manager. The club has been doing well, and the directors are said to be satisfied with the way the club is playing. The Bays are said to be worth about $250,000, and the directors are said to be satisfied with the way the club is playing.

GRAND ARMY TO HONOR COMRADE AT FUNERAL

Worcester, May 1.—A grand army post will hold a funeral service for a comrade who died in World War I. The service will be held at the post in the afternoon. The comrade was a popular member of the post, and the service will be attended by a large number of veterans.

SUITES!

GREAT SALE

of Autumn's Newest Creations in High Grade

Trimmled Hats

Beginning October 24th at 10 a.m.

Women's New Fall Coats $16.50

Another lot of new Coats in Knee-, Medium-, and Long- lengths, with plenty of beak off white and deep colors. Made with fur and other material, Special Friday and Saturday.

PORTLAND CLOAK & SUIT CO.

SALEM'S Greatest Women's Apparel Store

Will offer some extraordinary values beginning Friday in newest apparel modes secured through the activity of our New York buyers from the hands of expert coat and suit makers and millinery artists away below their regular values, because of their ability to purchase in large quantities, and because of our policy of cutting strictly for cash and our law overhead expenses we can sell for lower prices than others ask for similar merchandise. Remember—It's not the price you pay but what you get for the price that constitutes a bargain.