AGGIES VS. STANFORD GAME PROMISES MUCH

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oct. 24.—The big game of the season at Corvallis will be held Saturday when the Aggies tangle with the squad from Leland Stanford university.

Every man is on his toes, and Coach Hargis is driving the players hard in preparation for the game. Enthusiasm among the rooters is at fever heat, and a record breaking turnout is expected for the contest Saturday.

Captain "Butts" Reardon, who was laid up with a strained knee for some time, is again in uniform and will be able to play in the Stanford game.

"Chuck" Rose and "Gap" Powell, end and fullback, are also in good condition again, after being slightly injured.

All teams lead to Corvallis this week end, and it is expected that many of the alumni will return for the homecoming game, and for other attractions that will take place during the week end.

Oil Fields Have Nothing on Salem States Eskelson

The Texas oil fields have nothing on Salem and property adjoining when it comes to doubling up money on real estate. Big money is being made in loganberries around Salem and as a consequence large factories have been built at Salem to handle loganberry products, according to Eph Eskelson, former Morrow county farmer. This has resulted in bringing big payrolls to the capital city. The dried fruits industry is also growing to immense proportions and industrial activity is being followed closely by a strong realty market. Mr. Eskelson says that many loganberry growers have become wealthy in a few short years and the industry is yet in its infancy. Since the country has gone dry, the demand for soft drinks has naturally increased, and no single soft drink has felt this increased demand as has that of the loganberry. Mr. Eskelson is spending a few days in Morrow county on business and will return to his Salem home the last of the week. He recently bought a tract of land in the outskirts of the city and is making a fine home there.—Exchange.

You're in mighty good company when you belong to the Red Cross.

So long as there's sickness, suffering, disaster, the Red Cross must stand by!

The H. C. of L. hasn't hit Red Cross memberships. They're still a dollar.

If nine million youngsters believe in the Red Cross, it must have the right idea.

Dr. Livingston Farrand, the greatest authority on public health in America, served in France as the head of the fight against tuberculosis. He now succeeds Henry P. Davison as head of the American Red Cross. Dr. Farrand recently visited Seattle, Spokane and Portland and conferred with representatives of Red Cross Chapters of Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington. "The Red Cross faces problems in the post-war period more serious, if possible, than the problems of the war itself. Not a great amount of money, but the membership and hearty co-operation of every American citizen is what is needed to help the Red Cross to solve these problems, which threaten our national vitality, and which, unless solved, will rob us of the fruits of victory," said Dr. Farrand.

WASHINGTON STATE MAKES READY TODAY

Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 24.—Washington State college football team has taken over the U. of C. campus today while the California eleven is mending about the hills of Contra Costa county resting up for tomorrow's game. The Washingtonians arrived early enough yesterday afternoon to practice through a short workout.

JAPANESE ORGANIZE UNIONS TO PROTECT

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 24.—"The time has arrived when the working men in Japan have found it imperative to organize trades unions in order that they may raise the standard of living. At the present time there are no unions in Japan and the working man is forced to accept whatever pay his employer may decide to give. The Japanese government has endorsed the move of the working men to organize."

This statement was made by U. Masomoto, Japanese labor delegate, on arrival here on the Fushimi Maru. Masomoto is a naval architect and states that he represents 3,000,000 working men. With 11 other Japanese in his suite, he is enroute to Washington to attend the international labor conference.

"During my five years service at the Armstrong yards at Newcastle and my three years at Cramps shipyards at Philadelphia, I learned a great deal about trades unions," said Masomoto. "On my return to Japan I decided to do my best to organize the Japanese workmen so that they might obtain better wages and as a result have better living conditions. But it was very hard work. However, we have now succeeded in securing the encouragement of our government and on our return from this conference we will proceed with the organization of unions."

BASEBALL

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 24.—Baseball fans were eagerly awaiting word from San Francisco today regarding the chances of this city securing a franchise in the Pacific Coast league. John D. Kearns, president of the Rotary club, wired Bob Brown, who is representing Vancouver interests at the Coast league annual meeting, assurance of the wholehearted support of business interests here in the effort to have a class AA league club in Vancouver.

BOXING

London, Oct. 24.—(United Press).—Fred Fulton, American heavyweight, knocked out the Australian fighter, Gordon Goghill, in the third round of a scheduled 20-round bout last night.

San Francisco, Oct. 24.—A big house including many women, saw "K. O." Krivosky win in a four round bout with Gunboat Smith.

Federal Officials Take Hand In Tailors' Strike

San Francisco, Oct. 24.—Federal officials took a hand in the tailors' strike when Captain Charles Connell, representative of the department of labor and E. P. Marsh, federal mediator, called a conference of representatives of the striking tailors and their employers.

Ten delegates representing the tailors and ten representing the employers were summoned to the conference from all coast points where tailors are on strike.

Skin troubles are unsightly!

Resinol heals eruptions

Only those who have undergone them can realize the mental and physical discomforts which many skin affections cause. The distressing appearance and the intolerable itching and burning too often make life really miserable. Yet Resinol Ointment, aided by Resinol Soap, generally overcomes these troubles promptly, even if they are severe and long-established. The Resinol treatment stops itching instantly.

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists. Why don't you try them?
