Hermiston is a little town on the Umatilla project, noted for its startling contrasts, consisting chiefly of wide fields of green alfalfa and endless prairies of sagebrush. W. M. Hansen, of the eastern Oregon town spent Friday in Salem, comparing the wet Willamette valley climate with the high and dry one of his own section.

Attention American Legion, the regular meeting of Capital Post No. 9, American Legion, will meet in Commercial club auditorium Monday November 3 at 8 p. m. Business of importance. All service men and women are invited. Buttons will be distributed to those who have paid their dues.

Mr. Grant, of the State Social Hygiene association, will speak to the men of Willamette university Monday and Tuesday of next week, during the chapel period. The girls of the school will be dismissed from the services. He will speak on wholesome health topics.

A newspaper, the Gladstone Observer, was received this morning at the Commercial club from Australia. The cost of postage was two shillings and eight pence. The newspaper sells in Gladstone for sixpence. The paper is much larger than American dailies, but the "heads" tell nothing, and are splendid examples of violations of Yankee newspaper etiquette.

The freshman issue of the Willamette Collegian will be published next Wednesday and will be printed with green ink on white paper. The freshman issue is an annual event, and its content and purpose are left largely to the originality of the rooks. The staff has been working for the past week on the publication. The following fresh are taking main responsibility: Rodney Alden, editor in chief; Clifford Berry, business manager; Constance MacLean, assistant editor; Marjorie Fiegel, society editor.

Miss Lillian Slater, who has been the guest of Mrs. N. J. Haas, 191 South Church street for the past week, has returned to her home in Portland.
