CURRENT EVENTS

Nov. 3 and 4-Bazaar in St. Josephs hall.

Nov. 3 - Businessmen's luncheon, noon, Commercial

Nov. 3 - American Legion meets 7:30, Commercial club.

Nov. 4—Salem Floral society, 7:30, Commercial club.

Nov. 8 — Salem Woman's club, 2:30 p. m., Commercial

Wanted, girls to work in parlor at

Viavi, the home remedy, Mrs. Foor, Hotel Marion.

G. H. Binkert and Paul M. Smith were over from Dallas Friday.

Oregon Taxi & Transfer Co. Phone 77, for quick taxi service.

L. A. Miller of Hubbard was among

75c and $1 now 35c. Hamilton's, 262*

Wanted, girls to work in parlor at Portlanders who visited in Salem Friday were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cox, opened offices at 540 State street.

Mr. and Mrs. Sparks, ladies and gents tailors, want garments to remodel. Room 2, 442 State St. 286

A resident of Silverton is J. E. Ho-baugh, who spent a few hours in Salem Friday as the guest of friends. Leather belting. F. E. Shafer, har-ness and saddlery. 170 S. Commercial.

From Broadacres come the Whitney brothers, A. L. and O. C. who visited here Friday.

A prune buyer from Portland is J. J. Lasselle, who was in the capital city on business Friday.

Dr. S. C. Stone will be found at Ty-ler's Drug Store, 157 South Commer-cial street. 'A little town, named after a big man, is Lafayette, the home of George Kodama, a visitor in Salem Friday. Norma N.Terwilliger, licensed lady em balmer with Terwilliger Funeral Home, 770 Chemeketa St. Phone 724. Charles Wallace left for City, Saturday, where he has taken a position in the paper mills. Dance at Moose hall Wednesday

J. S. Talbot, who came to Salem Friday to attend the final session of the Bible conference, returned home

Saturday evening. Rexall One Cent Sale Thursday, prices. Perry's Drug Store.

Dance at Moose hall Wednesday

Salem today, transacting business for the Polk County Observer. This week's drapery special-Fancy

75c now 49c. Buy W. S. stamps. Ham-The Home restaurant on North

Commercial street, which has been closed for the past thirty days, reopened this morning.

Home restaurant, 223 North Commercial, will reopen for business No 260 rember 4th at 6:30 a. m. Miss Laura Arnes, formerly a student of Willamette university, came up from Portland Sunday to visit

Mr. and Mrs. L. Mayo of Chicago spent Sunday in Salem. Spanish War Veterans, all veterans are requested to be present at regu-lar meeting Monday Nov. 3. Many from other camps will be present Special business. Eats. V. L. Masten. 260*

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Badger, formerly spent the week end in Salem.

Among the Portlanders who chose Salem as a desirable place in which to pass the week end, were Mr. and W. W. Cohagon.

full return premium policy on your life, it's the only kind. Phone 1332J

W. T. BIGDON & CO. Undertakers 252 North High Street

Woman's club will meet tonight at 7:45 at the home of Miss Dorothy Pearce, 267 North Winter street. This department is open to all members of k the club

W. C. Knighton of Portland, chairman of the state board of architect examiners, was a business visitor the state capitol this morning.

Answering the plea of "The Greatest Mother in the World R. W. Young, a returned soldier, was the first dollar subscriber to the third Red Cross roll call in Salem.

Roy Ohmart has returned from ringle where he has been residing or the past two years and will again take his home at Liberty. Mr. Ohmart was formerly proprietor of the Pringle where he has been residing for the past two years and will again make his home at Liberty. Mr. Ohmart was formerly proprietor of the 261 Liberty store.

George L. Cooper, deputy head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, will spend the coming week in Dallas where he has installed a court 263 with a large membership.

the guests at the Bligh hotel Friday. graduate of Willamette university, has moved his law office to Lebanon, according to word received by friends here.

> S. B. Catterlin, pioneer real estate dealer of Salem, who was forced to reire because of ill health some years

> Tacoma never worries its head about the Rainier in Oregon. R. A. Smith, of that town, spent Friday in

> Astoria, which from a naval standpoint is the most talked of town in Oregon, was represented in Salem

A party of tourists from Monango North Dakota, stopped over in Salem Friday, on their way to California. Those in the party were C. C. Colwell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wanted, girls to work in parlor at A. Colwell and Mr. and Mrs. R. R.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lafky, formerly of Corvallis, have purchased a home in Salem and are making arrangements to move in soon. At present they are domiciled at the Bligh hotel

Jack Campbell, formerly employed in the Kay Woolen mills, has returned from Long Beach, Cal., where he held a position in a similar plant for the past three years, and again entered the local, mills in the capacity of weaver.

Word has been received at the local Home service office, from the federal board of vocational education in Seattle, that the vocational adviser.

R. G. White, will be in Saiem November 5th and 6th, to interview disabled soldiers. soldiers.

Miss Clara Breitenstein and Miss Olga Gray spent the week end in Corvallis as guests of Miss Ethel Fraser and Miss Irene Curtiss at their sorority house. sorority house.

Grand chief ranger of the Foresters of America, Charles E. Ramp of Saem, accompanied by James Bain of Portland, went to Albany Saturday evening to attend an important meetableaux court. Friday, Saturday, Nov. 6, 7, 8. Circu-of America, Charles E. Ramp of Sa-lars at store giving list of goods and lem, accompanied by James Bain of Portland, went to Albany Saturday evening to attend an important meet-260° ing of the Albany court.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Q. Mills of Portland arrived in Salem Saturday evening and will remain until Thursday as the guests of relatives. Mr. Mills is the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barnes, and his marriage to a Denver girl was an event of late October. Miss Muriel Grant of Dallas was in Portland arrived in Salem Saturday Madronettes, full line colors, Regular Denver girl was an event of late October.

> The funeral of Mrs. Mildred Georgia Denison, 33, wife of Charles K. Denison, who died at the family residence, foot of Court street Friday evening, was held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the chapel of Webb and Clough, Court and High streets, Dr. Porter officiated. Burial was at the City View cemetery.

by T. E. McLeon, 920 Leslie street, tained by relatives in San Francisco city and Lester Gunn, 414 11th street. Portland, at the corner of State and High streets yesterday morning was brought to the attention of police. No arrests were made, after McLeon and Gunn agreed to settle the differences between themselves.

badges for men in the navy is expected in Portland about November Marion hotel this morning. 15th. The buttons are intended for civilian dress and the badges for men still in the service. Mrs. Alice H. Dodd will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock at as her biblical sister, her citizens are

H. J. Schulderman, corporation be discussed. Mrs. W. W. Cohagon.

E. L. Buchanan is agent in Marion and Polk counties for the National Life for the government in the prosecution of the Pan-Motor company, a $9.

Insurance Co., U. S. A. See him for a full return preminm policy on your life, it's the only kind. Phone 1332J with using the mails to defraud. The company was denied admittance into company was denied admittance into Asa Fordyce of Klamath Falls, Oregon by Schulderman after an ex-county commissioner of Klamath Hee, some years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelley of Inde-pendence, are in Salem as the guests with a lelegation from Wasco and of relatives. They arrived from the Sherman counties in Portland this afeast, Sunday morning, where they ternoon relative to plans for further-have been sojourning for the past two ing the work on The Dalles-California months, having attended the G. A. H. state highway now under course of conference in Columbus, Ohio, and construction.

All This Season's Models

Must be sold this week.

To clean up they are

Factory Cost

priced less than

All This Season's Models

Must be sold this week. To clean up they are priced less than

Factory Cost

FORMERLY SOLD TO

$45.00

EXTRA SPECIAL

FORMERLY

$65.00 EXTRA SPECIAL

$39.85

FORMERLY

EXTRA SPECIAL

$59.85

$85.00

FORMERLY

$125.00

EXTRA SPECIAL $83.85

Watch for National Blouse Week. What's That? A Money Saver.

Tomorrow's Big Sale ECONOMY SQUARE

Saves the good clothes and gives the Kiddie an enjoyable Freedom

Kiddies Coveralls

Blue pin Checked

Cheviot Shirting Trimmed in Red. Makes an ideal play agrment.

23c

Ladies' and Children's Handkerchiefs

For the benefit of the early shopper who desires plenty of time for selection, we announce the arrival of our

Curtains and Draperies

Now is the time to brighten up the home and prepare for the grey days of winter. A big shipment of CRETONNES has just reached us. They are pleasingly different.

· You Can Always Do Better at

Who Always Does Better By You

visited their childhood home in that state. The return trip was made thru ited with friends in Salem yesterday The collision of two autos, driven California, where they were enter-A resident of Astoria is Charles E. and Stockton.

> Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fenton of Eugene were among the out of town visiters in Salem yesterday.

Wearing a "My City-Oakland" ex-A supply of Victory buttons and pression upon his face, C. A. Holton of the Golden state registered at the The Capital Post, American Legion, residents of Polk county, but who now secretary of the Home service of the the Commercial club. Chief among just as proud of her as though make their home in Los Angeles. American Red Cross, will give any the business to be transacted is the were. Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Mille further information desired, to those polling of opinion of the members as that town were in Salem Sunday. who will call at the Home service of-fice in the post office.

to what the standing army of the United States should be. The matter of government life insurance will also > county; W. H. Mason, editor of the Klamath Falls Record; Geo. W. Ow-C. H. Pratt, formerly a business en of Ashland, county commissioner man of Salem, has returned from of Jackson county and G. A. Gardner, Northern Alaska where he has been county judge of Jackson county, were associated for the past two years with state capitol visitors this morning the Alaska-Portland Packing associa-tion. He has purchased two residence to attend the session of the state high properties in Salem, which he will re-way commission, Tuesday. The exmodel and rent. Mr. Pratt will be re-penditure of $1,000,000 ef county, membered as the candidate for constate and federal funds on roads in stable against the present chief of po- Klamath county during the coming year is contemplated in under way, according to Commission

May, who spent Sunday as the guest of friends in the capital city.

Formerly a resident of Salem, and no wengaged in the dry goods busi-ness in Newport, O. E. Franzke spent

The certars of Lebanon were the in spiration of more than one teller of tales in the old days when Judea was power among nations, and although Lebanon, Oregon, is not so far famed were. Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Miller o

GRAND Salem, One Night Wednesday, Nov. 12

The greatest theatrical event ever in Oregon, coming in all its completeness, headed by America's

Guy Bates

The Masquerader opens Nov. 10 at Opera House Pharmacy.

TODAY and TOMORROW BERT LYTTELL

"Lombardi Ltd." Ye Liberty

Glasses

Salem

Have your glasses made by an institution that is thoroughly established. Where you are sure of getting a perfect fitting and where guarantees are made good. A specialist in charge of optical department.

HARTMAN BROS. CO. Jewelers and Opticians

i

Oregon

Our estimable con duct has caused us be commended by the people of this community. They have faith in will see to it that no incident of our professional career WEBB&CLOUGHCO FUNERAL DIRECTORS

BUY REMNANTS Remnant Store 254 North Commercial

900

SPECIAL Good 5 passenger car will trade for what have you U. S. GARAGE 554 Ferry

Phone 1752

Methodist of Amity are building a $10,000 church edifice on a new near the business center of the city.