

REIMBURSEMENT BY STATE FOR JOBS THEY DID NOT GET SOUGHT

Alleging that failure of Superintendent of the state training school for boys to carry out an agreement to employ himself and wife at the state institution has resulted in the loss of time aggregating some $800, S. H. Isherwood of Salem has called upon the state board of control to make amends in whatever manner it deems reasonable and just under the circumstances.

The matter has been taken under advisement by the state board.

WILSON EXPECTED TO NAME PERSONNEL OF NEW CONFERENCE

Washington, Nov. 5.—President Wilson is expected very soon to announce the personnel of a "conference of fifteen" to meet this month in an effort to lay the foundation for industrial peace.

This second conference, designed to remedy differences between capital and labor in the United States, will probably be headed by Secretary of Labor Wilson and will not include any of the members of the recent ill-fated conference on capital, labor and public.

It will be a commission for investigation and will hear testimony of employees and workers on various plans now operative or contemplated in the big industrial concerns of the country.

CELL HOUSES AT PEN WILL BE HEATED NOW

The expenditure of $2500 in improving the heating equipment in the cell houses at the state prison was approved by Governor Olcott, Tuesday. This sum, it is estimated, will cover the cost of the necessary material and the employment of an experienced man to superintend the installation of the new plant which will be built and installed by convicts.

BOLSHEVIK SOUGHT WORLD REVOLUTION DOCUMENTS REVEAL

By Henry Wood (United Press Staff Correspondent.) Paris, Nov. 4.—Additional revelations from documents captured by Swiss authorities from Russian and German revolutionary agents, show the leaders of the Russian soviet government early last spring had outlined a complete world revolutionary program for this winter.

One of the documents, taken from a bolshevik messenger, forecast the present world-wide industrial unrest and instructed workers to seize upon the "psychological moment" to foment strikes preparatory to the general revolution.

"Order of combat number four," signed by Tchitcherin, the bolshevik foreign minister, last August, foretells the present coal shortage, declaring this condition will make inauguration of social revolution this winter particularly favorable.

Food prices are high, but if the stomach is weak with dyspepsia, the burden is doubled. The point is to enjoy the meal without distress—not pay for food only to suffer.

ALL WIFE'S FAULT

New York, Nov. 5.—A naval intelligence officer brought gloom to the "U. S. S. Joy" today. "It all my wife's fault," "Lieutenant Commander" Harold E. Joy, 29, told police. "When I couldn't get in the navy she bought me a uniform, sewed on the wound and served ice stripes and then sold our motor boat and bought a yacht. She called it the 'U. S. S. Joy.' She installed me as 'lieutenant commander.' Joy is held for illegally wearing a naval officers uniform.

BOARD INVESTIGATES NEW VOTING MACHINE

Acting under authority of the recently enacted law which creates a state board of voting machine examiners composed of the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer, who are required to pass upon all machines offered for inspection, representatives of the Empire Voting Machine company called upon the state board to pass upon their product, Tuesday afternoon. Governor Olcott and State Treasurer Hoff were given a demonstration of the workings of the machine but it is probable that an experienced mechanic will be employed to examine and pass upon the machine before any action is taken.
