

UNIVERSITY MAKES PLANS TO WELCOME OLD GRADS HOME

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., Nov. 5.—Led by the same old yell kings again cheering an Oregon team as they right to vanquish their old time rivals, the Aggies, will be the pleasant experience of over 1500 alumni and former students of the University of Oregon as they watch the Oregon-O. A. C. game in a section of the grand stand reserved for them, on November 15, Saturday of home-coming week-end.

Many plans are being made to entertain the alumni and visitors. The depot and streets of the town are to be decorated and cars at the depot will meet the visitors and take them about as they arrive on the regular and special trains.

Friday night once again the freshman bonfire will burn on old Kinnel field, this time bigger and better than ever before. While the fire burns stunts will be presented by the various men's organizations on the campus and many men of prominence will speak. A cup is to be awarded for the best stunt.

Saturday morning all buildings on the campus will be open for inspection and at noon a free luncheon is to be served to everyone in both gymnasiums. In the evening an informal dance will be given in the armory.

"BEARCAT" COACH

R. L. MATHEWS

Coach R. L. Mathews is now in his fifth year as coach at Willamette and bears a record of no defeats in non-conference football.

Mathews holds an enviable record both as player and coach. As a freshman, he played quarterback on the University of Washington team in 1907. In 1908 and 1909 he played end for Notre Dame and in 1910 he played half for the same team. For the three years he was at Notre Dame he made all state maps for the position he was playing and for two years he made all western states end. After leaving Notre Dame, Mathews went to St. Everett's college, Austin, Texas, where he lost but one game. From St. Everett's he went to Kenyon college, Gambier, Ohio, where he served three years, winning about 75 per cent of his games. In 1915 Coach Mathews came to Willamette, where his ability as coach has been well recognized by western schools.

BETTER SERVICE ON NORTH ALBANY LINE PHONES IS ORDERED

Patrons of the North Albany telephone company will be provided with satisfactory service by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company as soon as the necessary physical changes in equipment can be made.

This settlement of the difficulty existing between the two Albany systems was reached when at the conclusion of a conference between a delegation representing the North Albany company and members of the public service commission, Tuesday the state regulatory body called the attention of the Pacific company to a provision in its own tariff requiring that satisfactory service be provided.

The difficulty between the North Albany company and the Pacific company arose when, upon the absorption of the Home Telephone company by the Pacific company, the latter failed to make provision for adequate switching service for the rural line. A change in the equipment of the North Albany system will be required in order to permit of exchange through the Pacific switchboard. Attending the conference here as representatives of the North Albany company were A. L. Luther, M. A. Winn and C. G. Shoel.

WOMEN FORM POINTS OF OLD TRIANGLE IN INTERESTING TRIAL

New York, Nov. 3.—(United Press.)—Jefferson Market magistrate's court today was the scene of the newest of "triangles"—in which all the principals were women.

There was the woman judge, the woman prosecutor and the woman charged with the oldest crime.

The spectators, men and women, watched intently as those three women settled judicially perhaps for the first time a situation involving an offense which, according to popular belief, no woman can forgive in another.

The judge spoke to the alleged Magdalene in words inaudible to the spectators, but her manner was unmistakable. She was administration such a scolding as a mother would give to an erring daughter. The prosecutor nodded approvingly. Then audibly: "Discharged on probation."

The judge was Mrs. Jean Hortense Norris, New York's first woman magistrate, appointed to fill a vacancy. Her long experience as an attorney enabled her to observe all the niceties of judicial procedure.

A similar case was disposed of in the same way. Two young girls were arraigned for shoplifting. Their success and flippancy unrepentant alike invoked the sterner side of Mrs. Norris' nature. They were held to trial in a higher court.

When court adjourned the prosecutor—Miss Rose Rothenburg, assistant district attorney, said to newspapermen:

"Her honor has great tact, as well as knowledge of human nature, and is actuated by a spirit of helpfulness."

Mrs. Norris wore her abundant brown hair in a becoming manner, and from beneath her black magisterial robe peeped modish black silk stockings and patent leather pumps.

Russell Vashaw was among the Dallas residents who spent Tuesday in Salem.

PLEBISCITE OVER TSCHEN ASSIGNED TO UNITED STATES

Paris, Nov. 4.—The supreme council of the peace conference today assigned presidencies of four plebiscites as follows:

England, for Allenstein, Italy for Martenworder, France for Upper Silesia and the United States for Teschen.

Should the United States refuse the presidency of the Teschen plebiscite, it will be assigned to France, the council decided.

Nations accepting the plebiscite presidencies will be required to furnish military detachments to preserve order during the carrying out of plebiscites, as provided by the peace treaty.

The Teschen plebiscite is provided by the peace treaty so that its inhabitants may decide whether to become part of Czechoslovakia or Poland.
