

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

Nov. 8—Salem Woman's club, 2:30 p. m., Commercial club.
 Nov. 11—Housing mass meeting 7:30, city hall.
 Nov. 11—American Legion dance, armory, evening.
 Nov. 7—North Salem Improvement Association, Highland school, 7:30 p. m.
 Nov. 12—Commercial club membership meeting, 8 p. m., banquet and entertainment.
 Nov. 12—Shriners theater party, Opera house, 8 p. m.
 Nov. 10—Business Men's luncheon, Commercial club, noon.

Dance Saturday night, armory, 263*

Esten Williamson is enjoying a short visit with relatives in Portland.

Dance Saturday night, armory, 263*

Oregon Taxi & Transfer Co. Phone 77, for quick taxi service. 263

Will H. Bennett, superintendent of banks, left this morning for eastern Oregon, on official business.

Lena Belle Tartar, teacher of singing, 192 Liberty St. N. Phone 334 or 1615. 263

Dr. S. C. Stone can be found at Tyler's drug store, 157 South Commercial street. 263*

R. M. Thomas of Portland called on State Engineer Cupper this morning relative to irrigation matters.

A. Franke, a merchant of Newport is passing a few days in Salem attending to various business matters.

Zenth carburetor, coils and springs for all make of cars. Marion Auto Co. 264*

Charles Emmett, well known stock buyer, has opened up a real estate office in the Bayne building.

Zenth carburetor, coils and springs for all make of cars. Marion Auto Co. 265*

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet with Mrs. W. J. Culver, 185 South 19th street, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

Have lunch with us. Woodmen of the World, Friday night, Nov. 7. Members only. 264*

Mill creek, due to the heavy rains of the past few days, is at its highest point for several months.

Dance Auburn hall Saturday night. Good five piece orchestra. Take a jitney 25 cents. 264*

Norma N. Tarwilliger, licensed lady em balmer with Tarwilliger Funeral Home, 770 Chameketa St. Phone 724.

Harry K. Mills and his wife, who have been visiting relatives in Salem since the first of the week, motored back to Portland today.

Home study class of the Industrial Normal begins next Monday, Grades 7 to 12 for teachers and students, J. J. Kraps, Salem, Or. 265

A new orchestra has been formed in Salem and will be known as the Revelation Jazz orchestra. It consists of the piano, saxophone, xylophone, banjo and drums.

Al Steiner, chief of the auditing department of the industrial accident commission, is in Portland today on business for the commission.

Retall One Cent Sale Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Nov. 6, 7, 8. Circulars at store giving list of goods and prices. Perry's Drug Store. (adv)*

Fred G. Buchtel and Fred A. Williams, public service commissioners, went to Portland Wednesday, on official business.

The official title of E. B. Cox is "assistant to the president of the Washington Mutual Savings bank." Mr. Cox is registered at the Marion hotel from Seattle.

E. W. Powers and son are loading a car of prunes to be shipped to South Dakota this week. The fact that they are Oregon prunes, packed by an Oregon concern is made known by the label in a conspicuous manner.

E. L. Buchanan is agent in Marion and Polk counties for the National Life Insurance Co., U. S. A. See him for a full return premium policy on your life, it's the only kind. Phone 1332J for interview. 267

Mr. and Mrs. George Roy and grandson, Kenneth Reed, left Wednesday for Phoenix, Arizona, after an extended visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Roy's mother, Mrs. N. J. Hinton accompanied them and will spend the winter there.

The following program is being followed in the classes of Miss Ada Ross in the Washington school during "better speech week": Monday—explanation of better speech week. Tuesday: Poster display; pictures cut out of magazines and put on posters with some slogan for better speech beneath the picture. Wednesday: Tag day. Thursday: Slogans for better speech. Friday: Pledge to be memorized. "I pledge myself to do all in my power to use and to establish pure, forceful English, and to create a love for the most widely used language in the world."

The North Salem Improvement association will meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the Highland school. Following the business of the evening an entertainment will be given. All North Salem residents are invited to attend.

Work of remodeling the building on the Joseph Baumgartner place, Front street, to be occupied by the jobbing firm of W. J. Busick and F.

Reverend George A. McKinley, left today on an extended visit to California, where he will spend the winter as the guest of his sons in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The funeral services of Bernard A. Nathan, for more than 41 years a resident of Gervais, who died at his home here Tuesday at the age of 74 years, were held this morning from the Gervais Catholic church.

Harry Percy, associated with Percy brothers, and J. W. Maruny, president of the Salem floral society, motored to Corvallis today to decorate the Percy brothers fruit display at the Corvallis horticultural show.

Oneida Community Silver unobtainable. The Rexall company could not furnish us with silverware and we will be unable to supply as advertised in our sale bills. Perry's drug store. 263*

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Guthrie of Portland spent yesterday in Salem. Beside being an attorney, Mr. Guthrie is connected with a line of theaters throughout the valley, and was in town on business concerning them.

W. C. Dibble and W. C. Franklin, owners of a bulb farm on the Wallace road, have received a shipment of 15,000 tulip and daffodil bulbs from Holland, which they will use for their own planting. The bulbs were held on the docks at New York for four weeks because of the longshoremen strike in the east.

It was reported to the police last night that a woman, driving a car into a woodpile, escaping, however with no personal injuries and with but slight damage to the automobile. Hereafter, in accordance with a city ordinance, all wood piles must display a lighted lantern after dark, or the owners will be prosecuted.

Plans for the bazaar to be given next Friday, November 14, by the members of the Presbyterian church, were developed at a committee meeting yesterday afternoon. The bazaar which is an annual event in the church, will be one of the big fall affairs this year. Among the many interesting features will be the cafeteria supper, served by the women of the congregation in the evening.

Mrs. Devier Ely direct from the Standard Fashion Co. of New York, will be at the Gale & Company store for several days to assist the women of Salem and vicinity in their sewing problems. Mrs. Ely is one of the "artists" of the country in this line of work having made it her profession for the last seventeen years, during which period she has visited here on several occasions. 263*

According to a number of tractor salesmen, who met by chance in the Bligh hotel last evening, tractor firms are receiving more orders for their products than they can fill. The following tractor men were guests in the city yesterday: I. C. Bracken, of the International Harvester company; Clifford Harold Fordson; J. B. McFall, La. Cross, Hippi-Farmer; J. F. Foley, Moline company; L. R. Waters, J. I. Case company.

Chief of Police Varney this morning issued explicit instructions to his officers to observe the provision in the city charter relative to obstructions on sidewalks. The policemen were told to cause the arrest of anyone violating the charter by leaving obstructions on the sidewalks. Attention of the police were called to this particular phase of the charter after several complaints of a certain market, a second hand store and grocer leaving crates and boxes on the sidewalk had been received.

The annual jubilee praise meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will be held in the church piers tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A splendid musical program has been arranged and several interesting readings will be delivered. An enjoyable feature of the gathering will be the reading of letters from former members of the society, which will be followed by a social hour. All the members are requested to attend and a special invitation is issued to the other women of the church, particularly the elder ones.

The Literature section of the Salem Art league will meet in the public library Friday evening of this week. Professor Rentfro, professor of English in the university will speak to both groups at seven o'clock in the educational room, on "The history of the short story." The study to be followed for the first weeks is the study of the short story. Just what the plan of study shall be, and whether the telling of the short story shall be taken up at the same time is to be decided at this time. All who are interested in the course are invited to attend this meeting whether or not they have yet become members of the league.

The following program is being followed in the classes of Miss Ada Ross in the Washington school during "better speech week": Monday—explanation of better speech week. Tuesday: Poster display; pictures cut out of magazines and put on posters with some slogan for better speech beneath the picture. Wednesday: Tag day. Thursday: Slogans for better speech. Friday: Pledge to be memorized. "I pledge myself to do all in my power to use and to establish pure, forceful English, and to create a love for the most widely used language in the world."

The North Salem Improvement association will meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the Highland school. Following the business of the evening an entertainment will be given. All North Salem residents are invited to attend.

Work of remodeling the building on the Joseph Baumgartner place, Front street, to be occupied by the jobbing firm of W. J. Busick and F.

A. Jacobs, is under way. New additions are being made to the present structure, and with its completion it is estimated there will be 100,000 feet of floor space. Elevators and other apparatus essential to a modern whole sale firm will be installed. Mr. Busick said today that he expected to have the establishment open for business by December 1. They have secured a 10 year lease on the Baumgartner property. The firm has a temporary office in the building with the Salem Fruit Union, Trade and High streets.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sampson of Camas, Wash., spent yesterday in Salem.

Seth L. Roberts, representing an accounting firm of the metropolis, is in Salem today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lacey of Portland are spending a short time in Salem as the guests of friends.

Representing the Western Electric company, M. H. Nichols of Seattle is in the city on official business.

On official business for the U. S. navy, L. E. Crawford of Mill City stopped over in Salem today.

It is not, of course, the Jamestown that you read about in your history when you were a child at school, but is just as important in the eyes of the residents of North Dakota, as the historical city of the ivy covered church tower, N. P. Jensen of the modern Dakota Jamestown, was a guest last evening, at the Bligh hotel.

Almost any sign post you meet along the Salem-Dallas highway will tell you where McCoy is; evidently the citizens there believe in advertising. George L. Richards of McCoy is in Salem today.

The Grande Ronde valley is famed in the poetry and prose of Oregon, as one of the most beautiful spots in the state. A. J. Hudson and son of Grande Ronde spent Wednesday in Salem.

Switching charges between the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific lines in Salem will be reduced from 50 cents to 25 cents per ton if recommendations to be made by the public service commission with the approval of railroad officials are approved by the western traffic committee with headquarters in Portland. The move for a reduction is made upon a motion of the commission based on complaints to the effect that present charges are prohibitive. The proposed reduction was approved by H. A. Hinchaw and R. W. Pickard, traffic freight agents for the Southern Pacific and Oregon Electric lines, respectively, with offices in Portland at a conference, Wednesday, with members of the public service commission. The recommendation for a reduction also provides that there shall be a minimum charge of $2.50 for switching services between the two lines.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 6.—Frank Farmer, Tacoma heavyweight, won an easy decision over Gunbont Smith, veteran miller in the main event at the arena here last night. Farmer won every round of six cantos.

Cause of Stomach Sickness.

How to Relieve Stomach Distress in a Few Minutes Money Back if Treatment Does Not Overcome Any Form of Indigestion

If you feel as though there was a lump of lead at the pit of the stomach, take a couple of Mi-o-na stomach tablets and in five minutes you should see that all stomach distress has vanished.

If you belch gas, have heartburn or sour stomach, you need Mi-o-na. If your stomach feels upset the morning after the night before, take two Mi-o-na tablets and see how quickly you get relief.

If you have shortness of breath, pain in the stomach, waterbrash or foul breath, you need Mi-o-na and the sooner you get it, the sooner your stomach should perform its duties properly.

If you use a box of Mi-o-na tablets and find that it has not overcome your indigestion or stomach trouble, take the empty box to your dealer and he will refund your money. For sale by D. J. Fry and all leading druggists. (Adv)

Court News

During the past week three army and navy discharges have been received at the court house. They are for: Howard L. Eberly, Malcolm L. Gilbert and Walter William Weinert.

County Commissioner L. T. Hunt is confined at his home on Front street with a severe cold. His condition is not regarded serious, and it is believed he will return to work at the court house in a few days.

U. G. Boyer, county clerk, today received a letter from Cashier L. B. McBride of the First National Bank of Nortonville, Kans., asking for information of the whereabouts of George W. Weider. The letter stated that Weider, March 24, 1886, had been appointed administrator of the estate of Harrison Weider. The letter did not explain why Mr. Weider is being sought. Mr. Boyer asks that anyone having any information that would aid Cashier McBride to notify him at the court house.

Indicating his desire of becoming a citizen of the United States, William Gaylord Fisher, 21, a Canadian residing on Route 3, Salem, today made a written declaration of his intention of becoming an American subject at the county clerk's office.

He Wouldn't Loss Her for the World
 This girl's "boss" finds his desk a model of business-like order every morning. His mail is opened and sorted, ready for prompt attention. At night he signs a pile of neatly typed letters that are real letters. Our Want Ads found her for him.
 Read and Use the Want Ads in The Capital Journal

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 50, A. F. & A. M., this evening. Work in the F. C. degree. Visiting brethren welcome. 263*

ESTIMABLE
 Our estimable conduct has caused us to be commended by the people of this community. They have faith in our ability and dependability and we will see to it that no incident of our professional career shall lose us their esteem.

WEBB & CLOUGH CO.
 FUNERAL DIRECTORS
 499 COURT STREET
 SALEM, OREGON

Dr. C. B. O'Neill
 OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
 Ladd & Bush Bank Building
 Cor. State and Commercial Sts. Salem Or.
 Phone 625

KEEP YOUR MONEY IN THE CIRCLE

Scotts Mills, Monitor, Mt. Angel, Silverton, Mehama, Stayton, Marion, Turner, Aumsville, Donald, St. Paul, Brooks, Gervais, Woodburn, Hubbard, Aurora.

MARION COUNTY

MEET ME AT MEYERS EXTRA SPECIAL SUIT SALE

There is no need of elaborate description. We have given the detailed story in last Friday's paper. EVERY SUIT is this SEASON'S SUIT and all of the MEYERS QUALITY. That's sufficient. Here are the Prices, we know they cannot be beat, Quality and Workmanship of Suits Considered.

Formerly $45.00 Sold to	Formerly $65.00 Sold to	Formerly $85.00 Sold to	Formerly $125 Sold to
XTRA SPECIAL	XTRA SPECIAL	XTRA SPECIAL	XTRA SPECIAL
$29.85	$39.85	$59.85	$83.85

Tomorrow's Big Sale
 Economy Square
LONG CLOTH
 This is Imperial Long Cloth, Standard Quality—better and finer to work with than Cambric, and much pleasanter and more serviceable for wear. 36 inches wide. Tomorrow only. 29c

New Shipment
LADIES' Thread Silk Hose
 This is a new line for Salem, the "VAN RAALTE" Pure Silk Thread Hose. They come in White, Black, Field Mouse, Beaver, Cordovan. Some of them are richly embroidered, others daintily clocked, while others are plain. On display and sale in hosiery department.

Quality First YOU CAN ALWAYS DO BETTER AT Meyers GOOD GOODS Quality First
 Who Always Does Better By You

There is only one Columbus; ask anyone from the Buckeye state and they will tell you so. C. K. Russell of Columbus, Ohio, paid a business visit to Salem yesterday.

Municipal Bonds
 To Net 4.80 Per Cent to 6 Per Cent
 Government and Municipal Bonds Bought and Sold
HAWKINS & ROBERTS
 205 Oregon Bldg. Salem, Ore.

--Today--
Howard Foster Players
BLIGH Theatre

Make No Mistake WHY PAY MORE?
 WE ARE HERE TO SAVE YOU MONEY
 Stove Pipe, 25c
 MATTRESSES $5.00 to $24.00
 ROCKERS $3.75 to $28.50
 DINING CHAIRS Genuine Leather $6.50
Peoples Furniture Store
 A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE
 New and 2nd Hand Goods Bought, Sold and Exchanged.
 271 North Commercial St. Phone 734

Free Dance!
 Under new management
M. B. A. HALL
 Chemawa
 The hall has been remodeled and gayly decorated in anticipation of the GRAND FREE OPENING THURSDAY, EVE, NOVEMBER 6th.
 Five beautiful prizes will be given away to the ladies holding the lucky numbers.
THE NEW REVELATION ORCHESTRA
 (Some Music—I'll Say)
 Refreshments—A good time assured. Dance every Saturday night.

For Long Distance Auto Trucking
Willamette Valley Transfer Co. Phone 1400
 WE ALSO DO LOCAL HAULING.

CARD OF THANKS
 We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness to us during our recent bereavement, also for the beautiful floral offerings—Chas. K. Denison, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lucas, Floyd Lucas.
Mrs. Julia M. Weigel
 Teacher of Piano
 1560 S. Church Street
 Telephone 1391-R

OREGON
 OREGON OPENING RECITAL
 WM. FARNUM IN "RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE"
 WURLITZER ORGAN
NOW

W. T. RIGDON & CO. Undertakers 252 North High Street