Residents of Boise, Idaho, would smile tolerantly if they could see the way Oregonians shiver at the first signs of frost. T. H. Teese, of that city, who knows all about a real winter, is in Salem on a short business trip.

Steward Edward White, and authors of the same caliber, always picture Chicago as the mecca of the average westerner. Harry Freedlander, of the Illinois metropolis, is a Salem visitor today.

The occupants of an auto, bearing license No. 81233, which, last night at 8:55, collided with a street car at the south end of Mill creek bridge, North Commercial street, were still unknown to police today. It is said that the persons in the car were intoxicated. No one was injured, but the auto was badly damaged. The license number shows the car belongs to George Graves, a salesman of this city.

At a meeting of the men's club of the Central Congregational church recently, Dr. Frank E. Brown was elected president, L. J. Murdock, vice president and Guy Nugent, secretary-treasurer. Meetings will be held on the second Tuesday of each month, and will be in the form of a banquet served by the women of the church, at which a special speaker will preside. Reverend Robert S. Gill, formerly rector of St. Paul's church, has been chosen as the speaker for the next meeting.

Funeral services for the late Charles F. Slater, who died in this city, Nov. 16, will be held tomorrow afternoon, from the Terwilliger Home, on Chemeketa street at 2:30. Reverend Leland W. Porter, of the First Christian Church will conduct the services. Charles F. Slater was born in Nevada Livingston, Ills. in 1871. He was the only son of the late H. D. and M. E. Slater. Since coming to Oregon in 1902, he has lived most of the time in Portland. His wife died two years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Eva M. Khunert, of Astoria.

The week of prayer, Nov. 9 to 15, observed by the Y. M. C. A. throughout the world, will be commemorated by a religious service at the local Y. M. C. A. at 4 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Rev. H. N. Aldrich will deliver a brief address and the choir of the Leslie M. E. church will sing. Men and boys of Salem are invited to attend. John R. Mott, chief director of the International Y. M. C. A., in a letter to the Salem association writes as follows: "Join with us in thanking God, that the war has ended and for almost unbelievable opportunities for service which have come to us all over Europe, as well as in Asia, Africa and Latin America, and best of all for fresh demonstrations of the sufficiency and supremacy of the Lord Jesus Christ and the infinite worth of the Christian gospel."

Home study class of the Industrial Normal begins next Monday. Grades 7 to 12 for teachers and students. J. J. Kraps, Salem, Or. 265

Oregon Puts On Patriotic Concert For Armistice Day

As a special feature of the Armistice day program at the Oregon theater, Miss Margaret Faber will play the following medley on the new Wurlitzer organ:

This Medicine Has Cured Thousands-It May Cure You

Mr. L. P. England, a reliable citizen of Spartanburg, S. C., makes the following statement: "About twelve years ago I suffered with a severe spell of malaria and afterward was much troubled with rheumatism. I tried many remedies recommended for the rheumatism but failed to get relief amounting to anything. I saw Number 40 for the Blood advertised and purchased a bottle and found so much relief that I have taken several bottles and am well of the rheumatism. I keep Number 40 in the house all the time as I do not wish to be without it." Number 40 is demerol in blood poisoning from any cause. In chronic rheumatism, catarrh, constipation, stomach and liver troubles. Under its use eczema and skin diseases disappear, sore ulcers and boils are caused to heal. Made by J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind., 40 years a druggist.
Sold by Schnefers drug store. (Adv)
