

INTEREST IN ANNUAL O. A. C.-OREGON GAME HIGH DESPITE RECORD

Whatever may be the outcome of the game today between the University of Oregon and Washington State college eleven, in Portland, the annual game between Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural college, on the Eugene campus next Saturday will be of more than passing interest to the football fans of the state. And this, despite the fact that the Aggies have yet to win their first conference game of the season.

On paper the Corvallis aggregation is weak as compared to the Oregon machine which vanquished the University of Washington team on their home playground last week to the music of a 24 to 13 score. Coach Hargis' bunch received one trimming at the hands of Stanford and only last week suffered a trouncing at the hands of the University of California. In the Stanford game the Corvallis lads outplayed their opponents, according to "wise football heads" who saw the contest, but the breaks of the game went against them. Likewise, in the California battle the orange and black warriors fought hard but without a horseshoe.

Dope is Worthless
And then, one never can tell what is going to be uncorked when the two state institutions tangle each year in the "Oregon classic." Too many times has the apparently weaker team, especially in the case of Oregon, which has a rabbit's foot reputation in connection with this tussle, upset the "dope bucket" and walked off with the hog.

There's dark deeds abroad when these two aggregations tangle and while the lemon yellow should annex the state title this year, it is not going to be without a scrap. Over at Eugene they have an old slogan, "Once every ten years"—which means in cruel, hard English that O. A. C. has won only three times over the varsity lads, once in 1897, again in 1907 and lately and finally in 1917. They are due again in '27, but that's a long time to wait and Hargis' protégés aren't going to wait if it is in the cards to do otherwise. Hence, they will try to spring the surprise stuff on November 15.

Oregon is Favorite
That they are not likely to succeed is evidenced by the way in which followers of the game are placing their money on Huntington's cohorts. Oregon is popularly a 10 to 7 favorite, and locally some bets have been placed that the lemon yellow will win by a margin of 20 points. Dope hardly justifies the latter margin, however. To gather in the game with two touchdowns to spare would be creditable to any Oregon team in contest with O. A. C.—not because they have not apparently a much stronger scoring machine than have the Corvallis boys, but because the orange and black will fight Oregon with the last ounce of strength in their systems. Reason? Rivalry that has so far known no compromise.

And again, should Oregon vanquish the much touted Pullman gang today, O. A. C. would, next Saturday, have the opportunity of grabbing a slippery hold on coast championship honors by defeating the Eugene crew. Should Oregon lose today, the Aggies will have the incentive of pulling someone else down to occupy the center with them and at the same time annex the state honors.

Salem to Send Crowd
In any case the battle will, as usual be worth seeing, and will be seen by a host of Oregon and O. A. C. followers from this section of the valley. Already the Salem O. A. C. club has announced its intention of filling a special car of rooters to make the trip and a similar move on the part of former Oregon students and graduates is on foot. For the university followers, the trip will hold more than the prospect of seeing their alma mater down the old rivalry. Next week end will be homecoming for former Oregon students and it is estimated that between 1500 and 2000 will be back on the campus.

SIR COOPER BECOMES LONDON LORD MAYOR AMID ROUSING POMP

London, Nov. 8.—(United Press)—Sir Edward Ernest Cooper today was installed Lord Mayor of London with the civic pomp and ceremony which has been handed down from the middle ages. Once more that hoary anachronism, the "Lord Mayor's Show" dislocated the normally badly congested traffic of the city for some four hours, but as usual Londoners turned out in huge crowds for the annual pageant.

The Saturday half-holiday increased the normal crowds, and there was extra jollification over it's being the first "Show" since the armistice. The "show" contained few new features, being comprised of the usual detachments of London volunteer regiments, but this year there was a notable display of war ribbons among the marchers, and the cannon turned out by the City of London Royal Field Artillery were among those which lit the more than a year ago had been thundering at the gates of Jerusalem. The crowds lining the sidewalks gave these veterans a vociferous welcome and there was much civic pride displayed over the banners borne by other citizen battalions, banners now inscribed with the names of many a field in France, Belgium, Italy, Salonika, Palestine and Mesopotamia.

Tonight there will be the customary civic banquet at the Mansion House, at which Premier Lloyd George and other leading statesmen will speak. Sir Edward Cooper is a well-known musician, being chairman of the committee of the Royal Academy of Music. The salary of the Lord Mayor for his year of office is $50,000, but he generally has to spend about five or six times that amount. Cooper's predecessor, Sir Horace Marshall, probably had to spend half a million dollars during the past year owing to peace celebrations.

Americans and Canadians May Clash Once More

Renewal of athletic relations between the United States and Canada is expected to give a big boom to hockey and ice games this winter.

By an alliance recently formed with hockey and skating associations of the United States and Canada international matches for championship honors, which were discontinued when Canada's expeditionary force went across will be resumed. New York will have three big teams, The Crescent A. C. of Brooklyn; the St. Nicholas Skating club and the Hockey Club of New York will be in the field. The New York A. C. and the famous Wanderer's Hockey Club will not be organized this season. Practically all of the old members of these two noted teams were either killed or incapacitated during the war.

Oh Joy! 'Tis Shown Coffee Has a "Kick"

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.—Six authorities on alcohol and its effect, after tests on men and women regular drinkers, occasional drinkers, and total abstainers, have found: Two cups of coffee have as much "kick" as twenty one pints of one-half of one per cent beer.

A stomach full of 2.75 is only enough for one quarter of one drunk. Twenty one and a half quarts of one-half of one per cent beer at a sitting are necessary for intoxication, but the human stomach will hold only one-seventeenth of that quantity.

Six pints of one-half of one per cent beer rapidly consumed is the same as one teaspoonful of alcohol. These facts are contained in affidavits filed by the six authorities, including Dr. John Marshall, professor of chemistry and toxicology in the University of Pennsylvania. The affidavits were filed in federal court here today in support of the application of St. Louis brewers to restrain enforcement of the Volstead prohibition law.

DALLAS HAS NEW LAW FIRM

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Dallas, Or., Nov. 8.—A new law firm was formed in Dallas this week when E. D. Brown, one of the pioneer lawyers of the city and J. N. Helgeson, a returned soldier who passed the bar examination a short time ago, went into partnership. The new firm will be known as Brown & Helgeson and will have their offices in the Brown building on Mill street. Mr. Helgeson has been studying law under Mr. Brown since his graduation from the Dallas high school, but the war with Germany seriously interfered with his studies somewhat as he was sergeant in company L of this city and went to the front with them. After his discharge, however, he again took up the study of law and passed the recent examination with flying colors.

The license of Mrs. Charles Anderson, authorizing the running of a rooming house at Baker, has been ordered revoked, it being alleged that the home was being used as I. W. W. headquarters.

SILVERTON JERSEY BREEDER TO GO EAST ON RESPONSIBLE JOB

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Silverton, Or., Nov. 8.—Accepting an offer of eastern stock breeders to take charge of their herds, Frank Doerfler, well-known Jersey breeder of this town, will leave soon to assume charge of his new duties. A dance will be held soon in honor of him and his family.

Mr. Doerfler has developed a herd of registered Jerseys which have attracted nationwide attention. Millionaire breeders of the east now realize that Oregon not only has dairy animals of unsurpassed quality, but are even offering the big, progressive, red blooded dairymen of this country phenomenal sums to manage their affairs. Mr. Doerfler took a trip east last spring to attend the American Jersey Cattle Club meeting. As a result he has been persuaded to go east as manager of the great Ayresdale Stock Farm at Bangor, Maine. His own herd will continue with their splendid records as before, under the care of K. Hannebaum. The better, Silver Chimes Gwendola which has just completed a world's record over all breeds for cows under two years old will probably go east soon to show at the National Dairy Show next year.

Mr. Doerfler has a fortune in this one animal alone. The $5,100 cow of this herd has just completed a record of about 1,000 pounds of butter as a 3-year old having failed to capture the championship honors for her age, for which she was headed, Gwendola, Rosaire, the mother of Silver Chimes Gwendola, completed her year's work with 15,727 pounds milk and 1,035 pounds butter which is about the 35th best record ever made. Other records from 1,000 to 1,150 pounds butter are now in the market on this farm.

The women will divide themselves into several commissions at Yokohama to go to various sections of the Orient to make an exhaustive study of every problem in the mission field from standardization of women's universities and schools and prevention of tuberculosis to adaptation of American hymns to Chinese ten-tems and the problem of putting healthy contemporary American novels in the Japanese "best seller" class.

Third Point In "Triangle" Wishes To See Wife Hang

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Frederick Thurston, the "point of the triangle" which was shattered when Mrs. Thurston shot and killed Miss Jean Kimball, said today he wished to see his wife hang and that he felt "not the slightest sympathy for her." "My wife was not jealous of Miss Kimball. She merely wanted $5000 as a price to allow me a divorce," he said.

WASTING 1,200,000 TREES A YEAR

The amount of waste paper collected in all parts of Great Britain in 1914 was one thousand tons per week. By 1918 this had been increased to 8000 tons per week, or an increase of approximately 500 per cent. It requires eight trees of mature growth to produce a ton of paper pulp. Every ton of waste paper which can be substituted will save eight trees for other uses.
