

GOVERNOR WOULD CLEAR SOLDIERS AND BILL DOUBT

In order to set at rest the minds of ex-service men who are attending Oregon schools under the provisions of the soldiers educational aid bill, Governor Olcott has asked Attorney General Brown to advise the state emergency board at its meeting next Tuesday, November 25, as to what powers it may possess toward creating an emergency appropriation for meeting the huge deficiency which now looms in this fund.

The last legislature in passing the act which is intended to encourage ex-service men in continuing their education, provides a fund equal to a levy of two-tenths of a mill. Based on a valuation of approximately one billion dollars this would provide a fund of some $200,000. There are now approximately twenty-four hundred applications on file with the secretary of state's office from former soldiers, sailors and marines who are seeking to take advantage of this act. Based on these figures it will cost the state of Oregon not less than $300,000 and probably $350,000 in the administration of this act this year, or from $100,000 to $150,000 more than the legislature made provision for.

Many ex-service men are said to be apprehensive lest the state will not be able to meet the looming deficiency and are anxious to know whether they can count on finishing the school year under the provisions of the act. In order that this apprehension may be quieted Governor Olcott has asked the attorney general for his opinion in the matter. The state emergency board meets Tuesday, November 25 to consider the appeal of the publication for maintaining its grain inspection department. Attorney General Brown is requested to be prepared with his opinion on the possibility of a deficiency appropriation for the educational aid fund at this time, not that any action is contemplated now but in order that the board can express its sentiments toward such a deficiency appropriation for the benefit of the ex-service men who are taking advantage of its benefits. No action would be taken toward creating the deficiency appropriation, according to Governor Olcott's letter, until the fund provided by the two-tenths of a mill tax levy shall have been exhausted.

SALE OF CHRISTMAS SEALS TO START SOON

"Now that the Red Cross roll call is ended as per arrangement with the National Tuberculosis association, the attention of the public is directed and humanitarian citizens of Oregon will naturally turn to the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals," said A. L. Mills, president of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, under whose auspices the sale will be conducted in the state December 1 to 29 inclusive.

"Eight and one-half million dollars derived from the sale of Red Cross Christmas Seals during the past eleven years, have been instrumental in providing approximately $100,000,000 worth of institutions in fighting tuberculosis all over the country. The annual maintenance and upkeep of these institutions is more than $20,000,000."

"I wish to make plain that this is not at drive or a campaign it is simply the means taken for the past 12 years to finance the great fight against tuberculosis. One of the distinctive features of the seal sale is the fact that 90 per cent of the proceeds will be kept right here in Oregon, only 10 per cent being sent to the national organization."

"Best Health In Years"
--From Internal Baths

Miss Frances Herrod, care of Plunkett-Jarrell Grocery Co., Little Rock, Ark., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York, as follows:

"I am very glad to tell you that I am more than pleased with the results obtained from the use of the 'J. B. L. Cascade,' and am in better health than I have been in years."

This is but one of thousands of the same kind of letters received by Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, the inventor of the "J. B. L. Cascade."

By a purely natural process of property using warm water, the "J. B. L. Cascade" removes all the poisonous waste from the lower intestine, which physicians agree is the cause of 95 per cent of all human ailments.

Daniel J. Fry has filled an enormous demand for "J. B. L. Cascade" in the past few years and will show and explain it to you on request. An interesting booklet on internal bathing—"Why Man of Today is Only 50 per cent Efficient"—can be obtained at their store free of any cost. (Adv)

YOUTHFUL in Body and Mind

Never mind your age—as measured by years. How do you feel? That's the thing that counts! See this sprightly old gentleman coming toward you down the street. His birth record would show you that he is past seventy. But judging from the easy grace with which he swings along, his erect carriage, his ruddy complexion, the keen glance of his eye, his whole appearance the very picture of health, you would say that he is not a day past fifty. He is young in spite of his three score years and ten.

More frequently you see the opposite of his type. Men scarcely in their thirties—haggard, listless, weak, nervous—men who take no interest in life, just dragging out a weary existence, all in, tired and worn out. Though young in years, they are, nevertheless, old men. Their vital forces are on the wane. They've lost their "punch" and "pep." They feel old—and they look it!

Stay young by keeping your body fit. Keep stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys and bladder healthy and active. Build up your strength and health. Nothing will accomplish these results better than
