

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

Nov. 17-18—Convention state commercial club secretaries.

Nov. 18—Mass meeting, armory, E. B. Fish, topic, "True Americanism."

Nov. 19—Rotary Club, Hotel Marion, noon.

Nov. 19—Business Men's League, Commercial club, 8 P. M.

Nov. 19—P. E. O. Sisterhood meets with Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, 2244 State street.

Dec. 2-4—Bazaar in St. Joseph's hall.

Dec. 19—"The House Next Door," high school auditorium.

Norma N. Terwilliger, licensed lady embalmer with Terwilliger Funeral Home.

W. W. Blakerlee of Chemawa was a Medford visitor Monday.

Phone 35 for drugs. Prompt delivery. Tyler's drug store.

Asa B. Robinson, judge of Polk county, visited in Salem yesterday.

Dance Moose hall Wednesday night. Good time. 277

Miss Vivian Applegate of Portland is spending a brief visit at the home of Mrs. Walter Kirk.

Turkey shooting, Sidney, Oregon, November 23. 274

Peter Voth and John Nightingale, farmers of the Salt Creek district of Polk county, attended to business affairs in Salem today.

Love, the jeweler, 337 State St. Watches, diamonds, jewelry. Repairing a specialty. 276

Mr. and Mrs. Connell Dyer returned yesterday from a visit in Eugene, having attended the homecoming in that city over the week end.

Reverend Father Vin of Springfield is visiting in Salem as the guest of Reverend Father Roulin, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church.

Dr. S. C. Stone can be found at Tyler's drug store, 157 South Commercial street. 273

J. H. Baker, 545 Court street, who has been ill for the past week, is recovering rapidly and hopes to resume his business obligations in the near future.

Mrs. Mem Chapman and daughter, Miss Oda Chapman, left last evening for California where they will spend the winter with relatives.

County School Superintendent W. M. Smith was in Portland today, accompanying the Marion county boys who went there to make judgment at the Pacific Livestock association show.

The annual election of officers for the Salem Cherrians will be held December 2. Men to succeed King Bing P. E. Fullerton and W. I. Staley, secretary, will be named.

All arrangements for the big dance to be given Thanksgiving eve at the armory by the Salem Cherrians have been completed. The public is invited, and will be hosts of the Cherrians for the evening.

The Salem Rotary club will meet at noon tomorrow at the Hotel Marion. The fact that the Rotarians are giving the mass meeting at the armory tonight when E. B. Fish will talk, has nothing to do with the meeting at the regular time, Mrs. E. E. Brodie, contractor from Oregon City, will be at the meeting and entertain the Rotarians.

Funeral services of H. M. Gearhart, who died on November 15 of cerebral hemorrhage, will be held from the chapel of Webb and Clough Wednesday, November 19, at 10:30 o'clock. The services will be in charge of the G. A. R. and interment in the City View cemetery. Mr. Gearhart is survived by a wife, six children and nine grandchildren.

One of the oldest fraternal orders in America, the A. O. U. W., which has been in existence 51 years, has recently launched an active campaign for new members. The organization claims to be 100 per cent solvent with stable, reliable rates. The local branch of the order, Protection lodge No. 2, is much interested in the membership drive and expects to add a substantial number of new members as a result.

E. N. Coffie and Walter Lawson, who claim to be residents of San Francisco, were in jail here today pending investigation. They were arrested last night when they attempted to borrow $5 on an auto they drove to this city, at a local garage. They said they had come from Washington, although the auto bore a California license. Chief of Police Varney wired San Francisco authorities to learn whether the pair were wanted there for any offense.

OREGON

D. W. GRIFFITH'S
"BROKEN BLOSSOMS"
2:15; 4:00; 5:45
7:30; 9:15 P. M.

NOW

W. T. RIGDON & CO.
Undertakers
822 North High Street

Mr. and Mrs. A. Von Reeder of Astoria are spending the day in Salem with friends.

H. L. Traver of Eugene transacted business in the capital city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hyde of Baker are visiting capital city friends for a few days. They arrived in Salem this morning.

The Leisure Hour club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. D. J. Fry, Sr., tomorrow afternoon.

D. E. Pearson, a McMinnville resident, attended to business affairs in Salem Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Friedl of West Liberty, Iowa, are stopping in Salem today, while touring the west.

Alvin A. Kurtz, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, underwent a minor operation at the Salem hospital this morning, and is doing as nicely as could be expected.

He is a long, long way from home, is J. R. Cox of Nome, Alaska, who is in Salem today transacting business and visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Howe of Sheridan are the guests of friends in Salem for a few days.

Adjutant General Conrad Staffin is in Salem today on official business connected with his office. Mr. Staffin resides in Dallas, and was captain of company L at the outbreak of the recent struggle with Germany. He also commanded the company during the Mexican episode in the summer of 1916.

William Hart is in Salem today. The girls in the city are warned, however, not to get excited, as it is not "Big Bill" of the Thomas Ince studios, but a mere man like the rest of his species. Mr. Hart comes from New York city, and is registered at the Marion hotel today.

Returns from the asylum were the only ones received at Red Cross headquarters yesterday. They amounted to $108, and brought the total receipts to $3910. The larger auxiliaries, such as Dallas, Independence, Silverton, Woodburn, and a number of smaller districts, have not yet sent in their subscriptions, but it is expected that by the last of the week the entire campaign will be closed, and a complete report sent in to the headquarters of the northwestern division in Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Janz, Mrs. Grover Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Simmons, returned last evening from Portland where they had been called by the death of a relative, Martin Seitelmeier. Mrs. Seitelmeier is a sister of Mrs. Janz and Mr. Simmons.

Emphatically declaring that he does not come from China, and as proof, points to the map of Illinois where Pekin, his home town, is situated, A. T. Heisel of the American town with the oriental name, is in Salem today.

The estate of John N. McKay, who died in this county October 6, was admitted to probate in the county court here yesterday. The estate is valued at more than $100,000. It consists of $7065 personal property, land of the approximate value of $31,535, the McKay building, Portland, $36,196, and Portland property valued at $3460. Mrs. Caroline McKay, widow, was named administratrix. The heirs are her children, Mary, Cecelia, Joseph, John, Jr., Lenard and Mrs. McKay. They reside near St. Paul.

F. E. Ekward, author of the state traffic law of California, will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Business Men's League, Commercial club, at eight o'clock tomorrow night. Mr. Ekward is coming to Salem to assist in drafting a better traffic law for this city.

Mrs. W. P. Babcock left today for Tacoma to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, A. J. Gilibo, which will be held there tomorrow. Mr. Gilibo met his death in an automobile accident Monday. Mrs. Babcock was scheduled to sing this evening at the meeting of Chadwick chapter O. E. S., but due to the unforeseen circumstances will be unable to do so.

John Bowson, who has traveled over the greater part of Canada on his bicycle, was in Salem Sunday, having come up from Portland on his wheel in 3 1/2 hours. Mr. Bowson is enjoying a trip through Oregon similar to his Canadian one, and was en route to Klamath Falls when here Sunday.

Secretary A. H. Lea of the state fair board left today for Portland where he will spend the remainder of the week in attendance upon the International Livestock exposition. Lea will leave next Tuesday on the Steamer special for Chicago where he will attend the national stock show.

Andrew Matson has returned to his home in Hopmere, after an absence of nearly two years. Mr. Matson left the states as ship carpenter on a vessel bearing a cargo composed of a million feet of Oregon lumber. He also saw six months of active service in the A. E. F. Before leaving Oregon he had been employed on the

ELKS DOINGS ON NOV. 20

Candidates will begin arriving at Elks Temple one o'clock p. m., all the initiatory work will be completed about 6 o'clock, all brothers will assemble at the club rooms in time to march to the armory at 7:30 where admittance will be by the regular paid up Elks card. Have your cards ready to show the door keepers and avoid delay. A buffet luncheon will be served, followed by a program. There will be no dance.—Fred A. Erlson, I. W. Lewis, H. J. Wenderoth, committee. 274 farm of William H. Egan and Sons, and will resume his duties with them.

At the regular meeting of the Eastern Star 473a evening, visiting delegates from Donald, Turner and Station will be entertained. At their last meeting it was decided to extend the invitation to the three out of town chapters, and a social evening has been planned for their benefit. Among the features of the evening will be vocal renditions by Miss Gussie Niles, John W. Todd and Mrs. Bertha Stiles.

With all members of the Oregon supreme court with the exception of Justice Burnett in Portland attending the annual session of the state bar association, the usual Tuesday grist of opinions has been deferred this week until Wednesday. This is the second consecutive week on which the Tuesday morning program of the court has been interfered with, Tuesday of last week being a legal holiday in proclamation of Governor Olcott because of the celebration of armistice day.

Owing to the fact that Mrs. Louis W. McCullough of Portland, state inspector of the organization, will be in Salem on official business tomorrow, the meeting of the P. E. O. Sisterhood which was to have taken place on Thursday of this week, will be held on Wednesday instead. Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist will act as hostess for the gathering, at her home, 2244 State street.

Two motions to quash writs of review in cases against the city were filed at the court house today by City Attorney Bert W. Macy. One writ is in the case of Paul DeAntremont, who was arrested September 29 on a disorderly conduct charge, and was fined $50. The other is in the case of F. A. Kelly against the city. Kelly was arrested August 20 and convicted of distributing advertising material from house to house without a license.

B. R. Perkins returned last evening from Olympia. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins left Saturday morning for Hillsboro where they were the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. A. J. Perkins, leaving Sunday morning for Olympia, where Mrs. Perkins will remain during a visit of indefinite length, as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kramer. The four children have been in Olympia for the past four weeks, while Mrs. Perkins was ill at a local hospital.

Sons of the American Revolution, who reside in Salem are invited to attend the meeting of the Oregon society to be held in Portland on November 23d, at the University club, corner of Sixth and Jefferson streets. According to B. T. Thaxter, secretary, the 23d will be a red letter day in the society's calendar, as Honorable Chancellor L. Jenks, president general of the national society will be in attendance. Chief Justice Thomas A. McBride, of the Oregon supreme court will introduce the speaker, and following the speaking there will be a buffet luncheon served by the University club caterer. The affair is announced as being strictly informal, and each member is asked to bring some patriotic citizen as his guest. Eight o'clock is the time set for the meeting.

A marriage license was issued today to J. R. Hubbs, 57, Marion, and Mrs. Alwine Mitsner, 49, Marion.

REDS' ON TRIAL For Part In Anarchist Acts Today

New York, Nov. 18.—Investigation of the criminal anarchic cases against "red" leaders captured in recent raids here began today with the calling of "Big Jim" Larkin, Irish labor agitator, and Benjamin Gitlow, former New York socialist assemblyman.

Members of the New York police bomb squad and agents of the United States department of justice were called as witnesses.

Berger Stands On Platform Of "Pro-Humanity" In Race

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 18.—Victor Berger is "pro-humanity," he said today in a statement asking support in his candidacy for reelection to congress from the Fifth congressional district in Wisconsin.

The socialist leader said "I am pro-German, pro-English, pro-French, pro-Polish and, in short, I am pro-humanity."

La Follette Attacks Judge For Issuing Strike Order

Washington, Nov. 18.—Senator La Follette, speaking today on the labor provision of the peace treaty, severely arraigned the administration for its attitude in the coal strike.

"Judge Anderson, who issued that order, should be impeached," La Follette said, declaring his intention of reviving on the floor of the senate the "white outrage," as soon as an opportunity permitted.

"Judge Anderson, who issued that order, should be impeached," La Follette said, declaring his intention of reviving on the floor of the senate the "white outrage," as soon as an opportunity permitted.

Portland Girl Leaps Into Willamette; Saved

Portland, Or., Nov. 18.—"Good bye" cried Miss Genes Brenner as she poised on the rail of the Morrison street bridge last night, and then jumped 59 feet into the Willamette river.

The harbor patrol rescued her and the 17-year-old girl in the city jail today, charged with attempting to commit suicide.

Miss Brenner had been despondent because she had been out of work for two weeks and had no sympathy for applying for work.

Store And Postoffice At West Woodburn Robbed

The robbery of McCormick's store and postoffice at West Woodburn some time last night was reported to Sheriff Needham here today, and following the notification of authorities in all parts of the state, a search was being made at lover Oregon for the robbers today.

About $20 in stamps, some cigarettes and a shotgun was stolen from the store and postoffice. Entrance was gained to the establishment by removing a pane of glass from the door and unfastening the lock. No clues were left by the thieves providing something for authorities to work upon.

Company "Corners" Sugar

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 18.—Charges that the American beet sugar refining company has 159,000 sacks of sugar in storage at its plant at Oxnard, Ventura county, were wired to the federal trade commission at Washington today by the Southern California Retail Grocers' association. The sugar company has been holding 15,900,000 pounds of sugar off the market by filling only 40 per cent of its orders, according to telegram.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill
OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
Ladd & Bush Bank Building
Cor. State and Commercial Sts.
Phone 625 Salem Or.

TALENT DISTRICT FILES UPON WATER OF WAGNER CREEK

The Talent Irrigation district, embracing approximately 12,000 acres of land near the town of Talent in Jackson county, has filed with the state engineer's office maps and other data for the completion of its fillings on the waters of Wagner creek, Emigrant creek, Bear creek, Macdonald creek and Little Applegate river. Application for the appropriation of water from these streams was made by the district July 31, 1915. The Talent district has now under course of construction the Macdonald creek canal and other improvements for the appropriation of water from Bear creek and it is expected that the water will be available for the irrigation of the tract next season.

Shoe Economy

Is one of the principle topics of interest at the present time, and we are making it of more interest by our new "Shoeteria"

of SELF SERVICE SHOE DEPARTMENT. It contains all kinds of shoes and the prices are what creates the interest.

We quote you just a few but you must see the goods in order to really appreciate the values.

Ladies' small sizes in Hanans, Laird Schober, Selbys, button and lace, good wear $1.95 to $3.95
Ladies' gun metal, low heels, all sizes $3.95
Ladies' patent or black kid with grey top, special at $3.95
Ladies' black kids, French or Cuban heels $3.95 to $5.95
Misses' shoes, sizes 11 to 2 in black, brown, elk, lace and button $2.95 to $4.25
Childs' same in sizes 8 to 11 $1.95 to $3.95
Men's English last, black and brown Goodyear welt soles at $6.65 to $6.95
Men's round toes, black, tan, brown $4.95 to $7.50
Boys' black and browns $2.95 to $4.85
Elk bals, men's $2.59
Boys' $2.20

Come in and Help Yourself, Save Dollars
Every Pair Warranted for Satisfactory Service
AT THE ELECTRIC SIGN "SHOES"
The Bootery
WHERE CASH IS KING
Little & Upmeyer, Sole Owners
Salem, Oregon.

KEEP YOUR MONEY IN THE CIRCLE

Scottsbluff, Colorado
Monte Vista, Colorado
Arvada, Colorado
Hubbard, Colorado
Woodburn, Oregon
Gervais, Oregon
Brooks, Oregon
Donald, Oregon
St. Paul, Oregon
Salem, Oregon
Silverton, Oregon
Princeton, Oregon
Hermiston, Oregon
Stacyton, Oregon
Vladimir, Oregon
Astoria, Oregon
Marion, Oregon
Tillamook, Oregon
Seaside, Oregon
Astoria, Oregon
Astoria, Oregon
Astoria, Oregon

MEET ME AT MEYERS

Tomorrow's Big Sale
ECONOMY SQUARE

1000 Yards
White Outing Flannel

Suffice to say: "This flannel is of the MEYERS QUALITY" and is a SURPRISE SPECIAL."

TOMORROW ONLY, AT
25c yard
SALE OPENS 8:30.

YOU CAN ALWAYS DO BETTER AT

Meyers
GOOD GOODS

Who Always Does Better By You

MAY ALLISON
May Allison in "FAIR AND WARMER"

From flicker to flicker a scream and a snicker,
A laugh or a giggle or a grin
From cocktail to curtain,
A riot, that's certain,
COME EARLY and be sure to get in.
LAST DAY

DRAPERIES
MADE TO ORDER TO FIT YOU RINDOWS.
C. S. HAMILTON
340 Court Street

BUY REMNANTS
AT THE
Remnant Store
254 North Commercial

Dr. C. B. O'Neill
OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
Ladd & Bush Bank Building
Cor. State and Commercial Sts.
Phone 625 Salem Or.

TALENT DISTRICT FILES UPON WATER OF WAGNER CREEK

The Talent Irrigation district, embracing approximately 12,000 acres of land near the town of Talent in Jackson county, has filed with the state engineer's office maps and other data for the completion of its fillings on the waters of Wagner creek, Emigrant creek, Bear creek, Macdonald creek and Little Applegate river. Application for the appropriation of water from these streams was made by the district July 31, 1915. The Talent district has now under course of construction the Macdonald creek canal and other improvements for the appropriation of water from Bear creek and it is expected that the water will be available for the irrigation of the tract next season.

PRESIDENT IN CHAIR WHITE HOUSE PORTICO

Washington, Nov. 18.—A general statement on the coal situation, addressed to the coal operators, miners and the public will be issued soon by Fuel Administrator Garfield. It was decided at a two-hour conference of the cabinet today.

The cabinet also took up the general labor situation and Mexican developments.

While the cabinet was meeting President Wilson sat in a wheel chair on a portico of the White House. It was a mild, clear day and the president evidently enjoyed getting out of doors.

Hungry As a Dog

The Eskimo dog is usually hungry and in order to prevent them from eating their leather harness this equipment must be rubbed with tar.

OREGON

D. W. GRIFFITH'S
"BROKEN BLOSSOMS"
2:15; 4:00; 5:45
7:30; 9:15 P. M.

NOW

W. T. RIGDON & CO.
Undertakers
822 North High Street

MEET ME AT MEYERS

Tomorrow's Big Sale
ECONOMY SQUARE

1000 Yards
White Outing Flannel

Suffice to say: "This flannel is of the MEYERS QUALITY" and is a SURPRISE SPECIAL."

TOMORROW ONLY, AT
25c yard
SALE OPENS 8:30.

YOU CAN ALWAYS DO BETTER AT

Meyers
GOOD GOODS

Who Always Does Better By You

DRAPERIES
MADE TO ORDER TO FIT YOU RINDOWS.
C. S. HAMILTON
340 Court Street

BUY REMNANTS
AT THE
Remnant Store
254 North Commercial

SUITS, OVER-COATS $25 $30 $35 $40 $45 WHY PAY MORE

G.W. JOHNSON & CO.
THE UNITED STATES BANK BUILDING