

HIGHLAND SCHOOL PLANS TO PROTECT STUDENT'S HEALTH

If a scheme launched at a meeting last night in the Highland school of the Parent-Teachers' association is carried out, and the parents of children are willing to co-operate, Salem will grow some of the best standards of manhood in the universe. The hall in which the meeting was held was thronged with parents and teachers, and favor to the plan was expressed.

It is planned to conduct a campaign in the schools to detect malnutrition. The school doctor, C. A. Downs, and the school nurse, Miss F. Kopf, assisted by Miss Robertson, Mrs. H. A. Smart and Mrs. Theodore Maynusa, will form plans to carry on the work at once, and it is expected before the winter is over all the parents and children in the city will be sufficiently interested in the work to lend assistance.

According to plans discussed last night all the children will be weighed. If they do not come up to proper weight, the parents will be notified and asked to assist in remedying the cause. The associations intends to call a mass meeting in the near future when the parents will be acquainted with the program for bettering the health condition of young America in this city. It was pointed out at the meeting last night that the work is being carried on on a large scale in eastern cities with success. It was first taken up when it was determined by leaders of the student army training corps that two out of five applicants were unfit for duty due to malnutrition during the period of growth.

BYRD CONCERT TO BE HELD ON DECEMBER 5

Salem will have a chance to hear its own December 5. Miss Winifred Byrd, a Salem girl, who has gained fame throughout the east as a pianist, will appear here that night at the armory with Clarence Whitehill, baritone. Miss Byrd and Mr. Whitehill have been endorsed by the Salem Woman's club, the Business Men's league, the Salem Rotarians, the Elks and the Apollo club. An effort is being made to bring out one of the biggest audiences ever congregated to hear a concert for this affair as a homecoming reception to the talented pianist. Clarence Whitehill is nationally known as a singer of great ability, and has sung for record reproduction, and was with the Metropolitan Opera company six seasons, and six seasons with the Chicago Opera company.

IN OLD KENTUCKY IS PLEASING VARIATION

In these days of indifferent musical plays, detective dramas and plays on the evil of white slavery traffic and stage treatment of such other twentieth century topics, such as woman suffrage, eugenics and the high cost of living, a sweet wholesome offering like "In Old Kentucky" which comes to the Grand opera house this evening, is an agreeable change and a welcome relief. There is a touch of rugged, homely sentiment to it, an approach to nature's heart about it that makes its appeal a natural and wholesome emotion. The characters are real types, they throw with human pulsations and they leave a lasting impression on the memory. The wonder of the amusement world is "In Old Kentucky."

Pittsburgh, Kan.—After declining an invitation to meet Governor Allen to discuss the mine situation in Kansas, August Dorchy, vice-president of district 14, United Mine Workers, issued a statement indicating the miners will reject Allen's plan for state operation of the mines.

ELKS INITIATE 125 WITH GRANDE RITES TONIGHT

Everything is in readiness for the big Elks initiation ceremonies to be held this afternoon and evening. Promptly at 4 o'clock in the Elk club rooms on North Liberty street, the ceremonies will commence, continuing until 6, when the assemblage will adjourn. At 7:30 all the Elks in the city will meet at the club and march in a body, with the band, to the armory where a banquet will be served immediately. This will be followed by an extensive program. Twelve vaudeville performers have been secured from one of the best circuits on the road, who will come up from Portland for the evening, returning at three tomorrow morning to resume their contracts in that city. Harry Wenderoth is chairman of the committee on arrangements, assisted by F. A. Erickson and Erwin Lewis.
