DENYING CHARGES OF WIFE, HUSBAND ASKS DIVORCE HIMSELF

Strong denial that he had made a statement that he would just as soon live under the kaiser as under the United States, and citation of the fact that he had four sons in the world war, Jacob Tuleja against whom suit for divorce was begun here several days ago, today filed answer to his wife's charges, asked her case dismissed, and instituted suit himself for divorce.
 Tuleja also denied that he had $5000 due him, and says that he "has only a dollar or two in his pockets" which he needs "for the care of my five minor children." Gertrude Tuleja, his wife, had asked division of this sum in her complaint.
 Tuleja claims that his wife married him with the intention of defrauding him out of what little money he has, and that she sought to take away the money belonging to his children. He claims that his wife called his children "cats" and "rats."
 He asks absolute ownership of all property involved. They were married in Portland August 30, 1919.

COUNTY PRINCIPALS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The Marion County Principals association met this morning during the forenoon session of the Marion county teachers institute in the high school and officers to conduct the work for the coming year were named. The association will hold its first regular meeting for discussion of educational problems here, January 10.
 The officers named are: President, C. S. Dotson, Park school, Salem; first vice president, D. K. Luthy, Keizer school; second vice president, D. A. Hoag, Marion school; third vice president, Elmer S. Stultz, Jefferson; secretary, treasurer, Miss Luella J. Walsh, Woodburn; critic, Miss Clover B. Miller, Silverton, and O. V. White of Scotts Mills, was elected member of the executive committee.

Petograd Officials Want Trade Relations Resumed

Washington, Nov. 26.—Re-opening of trade relations with Russia, which would allow the bolsheviks to ship $200,000,000 worth of flax, platinum, gold bars and furs into this country in exchange for wheat, cotton and raw materials, is being sought by Petograd.
 Overtures have been made to this government, it is learned, but no progress has been made. The bolsheviks were said to have attempted to retain Americans and Canadians to represent them in negotiations.
 Reopening of trade relations, it is feared, would give the bolsheviks the opportunity they desire to further their propaganda.

BANDIT PUZZLES 3 STATES; SAYS HE IS COMING TO OREGON

Seattle, Nov. 26.—"Bill" Carlisle, the Wyoming bandit is in Seattle today, according to a letter received by Police Chief Joel F. Warren.
 Not only is Carlisle here, but he urges the chief and his minions to "lay off," as he wants to get a few days of rest, after which, the bandit promises, he "will blow" out of town and invade the state of Oregon.

San Francisco, Nov. 26.—To prove that he is in town, William Carlisle, Wyoming bandit, today wrote Chief of Police White and inclosed his photograph.
 The letter reads:
 "Dear Chief: The papers are the bull. I'm here, don't worry. I'll not pull anything in your town. I'll lay low and rustle a few short horns. Regards to the bulls. Yours truly,
 "Bill Carlisle."

White believes the letter is bona fide and that Carlisle is here.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 25.—General Manager William Jeffers of the Union Pacific this afternoon called off the road's hunt for William L. Carlisle, train robber and put continued search for him squarely up to the Wyoming state officials.
 Jeffers declared his belief that Carlisle "is being shielded" in Wyoming at the present time. He declared that Carlisle is not brave or spectacular, but "a sneaking porch climber." Jeffers' statement was made before the Rotary club here.

San Francisco, Nov. 26.—Mrs. Agnes Hunter Bowe, of Los Angeles, today shot and seriously wounded William M. Hunter, her divorced husband. The shooting occurred in the lobby of the Palace hotel.

WOOL GROWERS URGE DEATH PENALTY FOR MURDER BE RESTORED

The immediate restoration of capital punishment in Oregon is urged by the National Wool Growers association in a telegram received by Governor Oicott this morning deploring the unfortunate death of J. N. Burgess of Pendleton an officer of the organization which numbers 20,000 wool growers in its membership.
 "His loss is irreparable for we know of no one in the western country who was held in the same high esteem as was he," reads the telegram from S. W. McClure, of Salt Lake City, secretary of the association, referring to the death of Burgess who was killed by holdup men in Portland Friday night. "He was universally loved and respected by every member. The members of this organization join in assuring you and the people of Oregon their full and loyal support in bringing those guilty of this outrageous crime to the gallows. If Oregon has no law providing capital punishment we feel that a special session of the legislature might well be called for the enactment of such legislation."

CLOSED MEETING HELD BY ROTARIANS TODAY

The Salem Rotarians gathered in closed session at the Hotel Marion this noon. Matters vital to the Rotary club were taken up and no guests were admitted.
 Miss Lula Dahl Miller, Portland, sang entertainingly. "Bill" Walton, Rotarian and cashier at Ladd & Bush bank, talked on financial conditions in the city, and "Charlie" Archard, of the Charles Archard implement company, told to what advantage modern implements are to farming.

BANDITS ROB MOTOR BUS NEAR MILWAUKIE

Portland, Or., Nov. 26.—Two bandits held up the Portland and Oregon City railroad company's auto bus two miles east of Milwaukie, Or., today, robbing the conductor of $15.
 Five passengers were also robbed, but the amounts secured from them are not known, details of the robbery not having been received here.
 The auto bus is equipped with railroad wheels and runs on a track.

State House Briefs

Governor Oicott today advised Mrs. Elliott Corbett of Portland that she and her delegation of women suffragists would be given a hearing on the proposed special session of the legislature for the ratification of the suffrage amendment to the federal constitution, Friday morning.
 Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian, is attending the funeral of J. N. Burgess in Pendleton today as a representative of the governor's office.

Articles of incorporation were filed with Will H. Bennett, superintendent of banks, this morning by the Stockmen's State Bank of Silver Lake, Lake county. The institution is to be capitalized at $15,000. The incorporators are William Kittridge, J. W. O'Keefe and Louis Bennett of Silver Lake and C. S. Hudson and Ward H. Coble of Bend.

DUNCAN'S MOVE

Portland, Or., Nov. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan of Salem were attending the theater, sitting in aisle seats.
 The Salem man had a habit of nudging Mrs. Duncan every time anything "struck him funny."
 Duncan had to telephone during the performance, and returned to the aisle seat while the house was dark.
 Several more funny things happened on the stage and Duncan continued to use his elbow to nudge the occupant of the next seat.
 The Salemite, finally, heard a low cold voice:
 "What do you think you are celebrating?"
 Whereupon James found his own seat.

At a meeting of the Salem business men and the Baptist Brotherhood at the Baptist church last evening, E. V. Stivers, "the fighting parson" delivered an address, choosing as his topic "The church and the business man." He emphasized particularly the advantage of advertising, citing as an example the First Christian church of Eugene, where as the result of an extensive advertising campaign, the attendance has nearly doubled. Sunday school advertising was especially advocated by Mr. Stivers, as the need of interesting the children is evident. If the growth of the church is to be assured, a number of northwestern churches have written to Mr. Stivers of Eugene, where as the result of an extensive advertising campaign, the attendance has nearly doubled.
