

OFFICERS ROUND UP SENATOR AND AIDES ON FRAUD CHARGES

Grand Rapids, Mich., Dec. 1.—Deputy United States marshals were sent out today to arrest 134 politicians who, with Senator Truman H. Newberry were indicted by the federal grand jury, on charges of conspiracy to corrupt the electorate in the 1918 elections. It was expected by tonight a large percentage of the number will be under bonds or in jail.

Senator Newberry, it was believed would accept service through his attorneys in Detroit. Senator Newberry is charged not only with conspiracy but with perjury. It is alleged he filed a false campaign expense statement with the United States senate.

The names of but thirteen of those indicted, in addition to the senator, were known early today. This list was announced by Frank C. Dailey of Indianapolis, assistant United States attorney general, after the jury had reported. Names of the others will become known as arrests are made.

No arrests were made yesterday or Saturday night. It was Attorney Dailey's wish that no papers be served at a time when those involved could not procure bonds. It was announced that those arrested outside of Grand Rapids would be permitted to give bonds in the cities where the arrests were made. Arrangement of the men will start next Monday. Those indicted will be arraigned in lots of 15 or 20 to speed the work. Trials will start early in January. United States Judge Clarence W. Sessions announced he will tolerate no efforts to postpone trials unnecessarily, although every chance will be given the indicted persons to prepare their defense. Judge Sessions desires the trials be ended as soon as possible.

Berlin.—(By mail)—You may get away with murder in Germany, but it's dangerous to carry weapons for murder purposes. A soldier finding his wife untrue killed her, pleaded temporary insanity, and was acquitted—but he did six months for carrying a gun.

Kiddle To Accept Position On Commission

Ed. E. Kiddle of Island City, today accepted the appointment as State Highway commissioner from Eastern Oregon to succeed the late J. N. Burgess of Pendleton, which was tendered him by Governor Olcott earlier in the week.

"I desire to thank you for the honor bestowed," writes Mr. Kiddle in a letter to Governor Olcott. "I assure you that it will be my earnest endeavor at all times to perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability with impartiality and faithfulness, with a square deal for all and special favors to none."

FISH DEALER MINUS LICENSE RELEASED

J. E. Whitehead, a farmer, residing near Turner, who was arrested last Friday by Deputy Game Warden Roy Bremner on a charge of dealing in salmon without a license, was released today on order of Prosecuting Attorney Max Gehlar. Whitehead is said to have agreed to get a license, although when arraigned he pleaded not guilty and declared that he did not have to have a license. He was given a chance to get a license before he was arrested, it is said.

After all arrangements for the trial in Judge Unruh's court had been completed Whitehead reconsidered and told Prosecuting Attorney Gehlar that he would get the necessary license. The fine imposed in a case of this kind is from $50 to $1000.

GREENE FIRES SET-OFF SHELLS AND SCHRAPNEL IN DESOLATED FIELDS

Leon, France.—(By mail)—Though the war is over, residents of the devastated districts of France are daily fleeing from bursts of shell and shrapnel.

The new menace is caused by the small grass and swamp fires which are following an unusually dry period in Northern France, which frequently set off the shells that have been piled up to be hauled away and exploded in some safe place.

Major H. C. Greene, of Boston, Mass., had a thrilling ride and narrowly escaped a hail of shrapnel on his way from St. Quentin to Leon this week as a result of one of these fires. A French woman working in a field near Bouconville was painfully gassed and considerable property damage has been done.

In the vast, desolate fields, thousands of unexploded shells have been picked up by German prisoners and though there are details hauling them away and setting them off in remote valleys every day, there are still long ranks of them everywhere. Sparks from locomotives and from small fires where battlefield rubbish is being burned, occasionally set fire to patches of dry weeds and the accidental bursts are numerous. Roads passing places where shells are being set off are guarded but it is from the accidental blasts that the danger comes.

Major Greene, was driving along a road to one of the villages where he has a committee at work, when a small prairie fire reached stray shells just over a hill near the road. A fragment whizzed near his head. He put on full speed but several other explosions followed quickly and one piece of shrapnel tore through the top of his automobile. When he reached safety he made a circuit of the district and warned the residents not to enter the road until the grass fire had burned out.

The French woman who was gassed was almost a quarter of a mile away from the bursting shell, but in a valley. She was rushed to one of the Red Cross stations and was found to be painfully burned but not internally injured. Residents of the Aisne district are depending upon the early arrival of the Fall rains to end this danger, which has been the most serious faced since the work of reconstruction began.

Berlin.—Special diseases are making frightful inroads in the German schools. The Agar-Korrespondenz reports that many children under 14 are affected, and that an even greater number between the ages of 14 and 16,

Johnson's American League Meeting Cancelled By Court

New York, Dec. 1.—Ban Johnson's American league meeting, called for December 10, in Chicago, has been stopped by the courts.

An injunction granted by the supreme court to Owners Ruppert and Huston of the Yankees, restraining John Johnson and the Cleveland and St. Louis clubs from attending the meeting and from using their influence to support the national commission in continued withholding of the Yankees' share of the world series money. The defendants were ordered into court today to show why the injunction should not be made permanent.

Morand, justice of the peace of the Boring district, and Levy Stipp, justice of the peace of Oregon City, showed that 3953 votes were cast in favor of the measure and 3071 against, leaving a majority of 882 in favor of the bonds.

BURGLARS ENTER AND ROB CLEANING SHOP

The Standard Cleaners & Dyers establishments at 342 North Commercial street was robbed some time early this morning and $14 in checks and a few dollars cash taken. Patrolman Thompson, who answered the call this morning, investigated and reported that the thief had "jimmied" a window open on the south side of the building and gained entrance. Then he jimmied the cash register open and a box that lay within, removing his loot from there. Foot prints were seen leading away from the back door of the establishment across a muddy back yard. The size of the shoes, Officer Thompson reported, were seven and the length of the stride indicated that the burglar had fled in haste. Mrs. McGuire, who resides next door to the cleaning establishment told police that she had seen the burglar making away from the building and when she blew a police whistle the fellow ran.

Mrs. Joseph W. West, wife of the manager of the Mount Hood railway, died recently at Logan, Utah, where she had been called from Hood River to attend the funeral of an aunt.

An active campaign has been started by directors of the Lin County Fair association to sell $20,000 worth of stock to insure the moving of the fair to Albany from Selo.

By the sale of the Fulton-Demont block on Commercial street, a front foot rate of $800 was established as a basis of valuation for property in the business section of Astoria.
