

FARRELL MENTIONS TWO COAST PLAYERS ON ALL-STAR TEAM

By Henry L. Farrell
(United Press staff correspondent)
New York, Dec. 2.—Picking an all American football team always entails a degree of risk. This year it would be a hazard.

The crop of football stars this season was large and widely scattered. Some by their deeds have acclaimed their greatness from the house tops, like Harley, Ohio; Cody, Vanderbilt; Trimble, Princeton and Rodgers, West Virginia. But there are countless others, almost as deserving who played outside the spotlight and spent their efforts in the "bush leagues," far from fame and recognition.

Knows Only Easterners
I am familiar only with the teams of the east. If a team had to be picked on first hand information, it would consist almost entirely of eastern players and that obviously would be unfair to the west and south, where football just as good is played by players just as good as in the east.

It is thought best to name an "all eastern" team and mention merely the possibilities of an "all American" eleven without definite selections.

The following "all eastern" team contains the nucleus of an "all American" aggregation:

Robertson, Syracuse, center.
Alexander, Syracuse, right guard.
Henry, Washington and Jeff., right tackle.

Heinie Miller, Pennsylvania, right end.
Trimble, Princeton, quarterback.
Casey, Harvard, half back.
Gilio, Colgate, half back.
Rodgers, West Virginia, full back.
Players deserving of mention are:

Major Gets Mention
Ends: Desmond, Harvard; Carroll, Washington and Jefferson; Durnoe, Lafayette; Brown, Syracuse; Blaik, Army; Garrett, Rutgers; Fincher, Georgia Tech; Zerfoss, Vanderbilt; Faulk, Washington University; Meyers, Wisconsin.

Tackles: Hoople, Syracuse; Murphy, Dartmouth; Little, Pennsylvania; Bonner, Alabama; Bethel, Washington and Lee; Majors, California.

Guards: Barton, Colgate; McGraw, Princeton; Galt, Yale; Caughey, Stanford; Depler, Illinois.

Centers: Callahan, Yale; Day, University of Georgia; Wray, Pennsylvania; Conover, Penn State; Carpenter, Wisconsin.

Wells Also on List
Quarterbacks: Boynton, Williams; Anderson, Colgate; McMillan, Centre; Ackley, Syracuse; Robb, Penn State; Bloss, Stevens; A. Devine, Iowa.

Half backs: Erwig, Syracuse; Robertson, Dartmouth; Hastings, Pittsburgh; Fletcher, Illinois; Flowers, Georgia Tech; Oss, Minnesota; Gipp and Bahan, Notre Dame.

Fullbacks: Harlan, Georgia Tech; Braden, Yale; Stevenson, Alabama; Wells, California.

Of the two California men mentioned by Farrell, one, Majors, was not considered among the stars by Pacific coast critics and Wells was the selection of only one writer for the all coast mythical eleven.

MARION COUNTY CORN SHOW DATES ARE SET

December 15 to 20, inclusive, have been chosen as the dates for annual Marion County Corn Show, to be held in the tractor sales rooms of the Valley Motor company, on Front and State streets. According to directors of the exhibition it will be the largest affair of its kind ever held in Salem, and keen competition is expected between exhibitors. Decorative displays will be given special attention, and anyone wishing to compete in this phase of the show, can obtain particulars by communicating with T. E. McCroskey at the Commercial club.

The Boys and Girls Pig clubs of the county will hold corn judging contests on Saturday, December 20, and the entire day will be devoted to their interests. Prizes of $4, $3, $2 and $1 will be awarded those proving to be the best judges. All boys and girls up to and including the eighth grammar schools will be eligible for entry in the contest.

Thirty convicts at the state penitentiary have been assigned to work in the prison work camp, about 15 miles west of Salem.

Important To All Women Readers Of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by parcel post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores. (Adv)

Shop Early And Avoid Rush And Disappointment

SHOP EARLY!
Every merchant in Salem is voicing this plea. They, more than anyone else, know what it means to delay—disappointment, rush, and dissatisfaction. So they urge that Christmas shopping be done as quickly as possible.

During the holidays, or prior to the holidays, the stores will not remain open any longer than usual. They will close at 5:30 p. m. during the week, and at 8 o'clock Saturday evenings.

In every package sent out from the stores now is enclosed a card, thanking the shopper for shopping early, and gently reminding them that by shopping early it is to their own advantage.

Christmas Gifts Short.
And it isn't only to avoid the rush that shoppers are urged to buy their Christmas things early. They must if they hope to get what they want—or anything near what they want.

Almost every merchant in the city reports inability to get more than one-third of the things they have ordered for the holidays. Labor trouble, strikes, coal shortage and railroad tie-ups in the east are responsible, they claim.

One woman entered a store today. She asked for a certain small gift for "Johnnie."

"We haven't got that, madam," the clerk said apologetically. "Everything we have is right there on that table."

And that's the condition in almost all the stores where Christmas gifts are handled. There's a shortage of gifts—like the shortage of homes in Salem—and if you want any you'd better hurry!

Not Open Nights.
Even Christmas eve the stores will not remain open longer than usual. So there's no use waiting—like your father used to do—"til the night Santa Claus comes to go to meet him.

Many shoppers already have the right idea. The past few days, and particularly Monday, saw many Christmas shoppers surging into the downtown stores. But the clerks were happy. They know that if the big work is done now, they won't have to spend Christmas day in bed, recuperating from fatigue incurred through the carelessness of others.

Shop early!

TEXTILE STRIKE ON

Fall River, Mass., Dec. 2.—The strike of textile workers called by the textile council of the National Amalgamation of Textile Workers in 112 cotton mills here became effective Monday. Early reports indicated that 35,000 of a total of nearly 40,000 operatives obeyed the strike order. The workers demand a 25 per cent increase in wages.

Forty-five former service men met at Ontario Friday night and organized Ontario post No. 67 of the American Legion.

68 Recently Arrested Reds To Be Deported Before Long

Washington, Dec. 2.—Sixty eight reds, members of the Russian workers' union, arrested in recent raids of the department of justice, will be deported in the near future, Chairman Johnson of the house investigation committee, which has just conducted an investigation of conditions at Ellis Island, said Monday.

"The committee Saturday and Sunday personally examined all the Russians and found them self confessed anarchists," Johnson said. "These radicals, our investigation showed, formed the union in 1914, with the express purpose of overthrowing the government of the United States and setting up in its place a form of the Russian soviet."

Open Forum.

To the Editor—On Dec. 8 the taxpayers of school district No. 24 are demanded to vote a one mill tax over and above the lawful 6 per cent limit and as the school budget is now published, the taxpayers will have to vote all or none, and if the one mill is voted it will certainly establish a bad precedent. The one mill should be put on the ballot as a separate item so the taxpayers could vote yes or no. The writer has no objections whatever to the proposed $150 bonus for each teacher for those that are getting say $125 or less, as the writer has always believed and advocated securing good teachers (but necessary teachers) paying them good salaries and make them permanent as far as possible. The taxpayers are always made to put up any and all costs, and our school board make no effort on their part to half meet these unusual demands but continue on adopting any and everything suggested by the superintendent and others without due consideration, and especially at this time under the present conditions of extreme costs on every hand.

There is no doubt in the writer's mind that the board could eliminate a lot of expense by cutting out, especially in these times, things that are not necessary or a very great addition to the pupils education, such as the so called physical culture stuff, etc., etc. No doubt that the domestic science house is costing a great deal more than was first estimated, as has been the custom to get such things started the costs at first are greatly underestimated.

Two Portland Musicians Add To State Committee

Henry Bettman and John Claire Montieth, both of Portland, have been added to the state committee for accrediting music teachers, according to announcement made by J. A. Churchill, superintendent of instruction, here Monday. The other three members of the committee are Dr. John J. Landbury of Eugene, Mrs. Jean McCracken of Portland and Frederick W. Goodrich of Portland.

This committee is authorized to pass under the qualifications of music teachers who desire to be accredited under the state law which provides that high school students may receive credits for music taken outside of school if taken under an accredited teacher.

BID ON BONDS

The Ralph Schneelock company and the Security Savings & Trust company, both of Portland, bid in the $75,750 worth of irrigation securities commission bonds, Tuesday, at 4.75 paying a bonus of $203 for the issue.

By winning first place for O. A. C. in the stock judging contest at the live stock exposition in Portland last week, the team earned prizes amounting to $750.

TORPEDOED!

Don't blast your Liver and Bowels, but take "Cascarets."

You men and women who can't get feeling right—who have headache, coated tongue, bad taste and four breath, dizziness, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach and colds.

Are you keeping your liver and bowels clean with Cascarets, or shocking your insides every few days with calomel, salts, oil and violent pills?

Cascarets work while you sleep; they cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Cascarets never gripe, sicken or cause inconvenience and Cascarets cost so little too. (Adv)

NEW PARKING RULES IN EFFECT TONIGHT

The new parking ordinance, providing a penalty for anyone leaving an auto parked for more than an hour on any street within the city fire limits between the hours of 12:30 a. m. and 5:30 a. m. goes into effect today. The fire limits are Trade street on the south, Front street on the west, Church street on the east, and Center street on the north.

The ordinance was passed by the city council to clear the street at night and enable the street cleaning department to sweep all parts of the downtown streets.

POSSES SEEK ROBBERS.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 2.—Armed posse are searching for safe robbers who escaped with $1,000 after blowing the safe in the Randall grocery company's store at Enunclaw Sunday. They escaped on a Northern Pacific hand-car, which was abandoned at Kanasket.

No Better Heating Device WAS EVER BUILT THAN THE Manning Gas Heater

Heating Engineers and experts everywhere tell us that this is the only perfect gas generating burner they ever saw among the hundreds of other coal oil burners on the market. It does not burn the oil but burns the gas that it generates from the oil, thereby giving a perfect blue flame. Do not confuse this gas maker with any of the so called gas burners, there is as much difference between them as there is between a Ford and a Pierce Arrow auto. Just call and let us show you some of the specialties which makes it an absolutely safe and successful heater.
