

SPOKANE VOTING ON INCREASED PAY FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS

Spokane, Wn., Dec. 2.—With the Guardians of Liberty, an anti-Catholic society, actively working to put two candidates into office, and with half of the city bitterly fighting them, voters go to the polls here today to elect two school board members and adopt or reject a proposal to raise teachers pay.

Charges that the Guardians hope by electing two certain candidates, to control the board and oust all pro-Catholic school employees, have been made.

That the Guardians are actively in the fight was proved Sunday when they appeared at churches and passed out pamphlets.

John G. Rogers and John C. Larue, present members of the school board, whose names have been coupled with the Guardians of Liberty, have denied that they are in any conspiracy to oust pro-Catholic employees.

PAIR, BELIEVED IN OREGON, SOUGHT AS WOMAN'S SLAYERS

Lawton, Mich., Dec. 1.—Police today sought Mrs. Lester Tabor and her son Walter, last reported "somewhere in Oregon", following the finding of the body of Miss Maud Tabor in a trunk in the basement of the Tabor home here.

The body was found by Mrs. Florence Tabor, Critchlow, formerly of San Francisco, a sister of the dead woman. Authorities said the body had evidently been in the trunk for at least three years.

Miss Tabor, a graduate of the University of Michigan and a teacher of languages, disappeared about three years ago, shortly after the death of her father, a prominent lawyer of this city.

Police said that following the woman's disappearance, her brother Walter declared she died on a ranch out west where she had gone for her health.

Authorities said Miss Tabor had a sweetheart here at the time of her disappearance. Examination of the body disclosed the woman was about to become a mother, furnishing a motive for the crime. Miss Tabor was 46 years of age when she disappeared.

"Comeback" For Genius Seen In Gland's Change

San Francisco, Dec. 2.—(United Press.)—The decrepit actor and the down and out genius will stage a most remarkable comeback if the interstitial glands operation becomes available to the public. Dr. Victor G. Veeki declared today in an address before the Western Arts association.

"The saying 'an old actor is an old beggar' will not apply," said Dr. Veeki, "for genius will be restored in full measure. The stiffened fingers of the aged pianist will be made flexible and cracked voices of the tragedian of former days will become resonant."

Dr. Veeki held out hope to the man of artistic temperament who has never become a genius through lack of executive ability.

"The so-called interstitial glands operation," he said, "will supply the missing qualities of force and power in many instances. It will be a great boon to genius."

Dr. Veeki is a personal friend of Dr. Frank G. Lydston of Chicago who originated the operation. He has been associated with Dr. L. L. Stanley at San Quentin prison in the latter's gland operations on criminals. He declared the gland operation is "definitely past the experimental stage and is a great success."

Chicago, Dec. 2.—H. S. Wigle, Spokane, Wash., director and former vice-president of the Pan Motor company, was Monday held to the grand jury under $20,000 bonds in charges of perjury by Judge K. M. Landis in the trial of Pan Motor company officials here.

This action followed Wigle's statement under cross-examination today that he purchased three shares of stock for $15. He had previously testified that he paid $30 for the stock and the subscription blank bore out this statement. Judge Landis then took the cross-examination in his own hands and had the court reporter read the questions and answers in Wigle's testimony.

The judge ordered the jury from the room.

"I have never heard of an unwarranted exhibition of false swearing in this court," said the judge.

The United States marshal was ordered to take Wigle into custody but not in the presence of the Pan jury.
