

PREDICTING WINNER OF LONDON BOUT HARD

By Henry L. Farrell
(United Press staff correspondent)

New York, Dec. 4.—If there were not so many "ifs" to consider, doping the winner of the Carpenter-Beckett fight tonight in London would be a simple process.

London, after seeing both battlers has made Beckett a five to four favorite. He appears to be the logical winner.

In a twenty round battle the old axiom of brains being better than brawn does not always go.

Carpenter, a boxer of the scientific type, has shown no indication of possessing the punch to put away the rugged, heavy, bruising, gypsy fighter, Joe Beckett.

Beckett packs the well known wallop and if Georges is able to dance away from him throughs half the fight until the Welchman gets tired, he has a chance to win on points.

On the other hand, Beckett's rushing, slugging tactics may force the Frenchman to lay aside some of his science and mix it. The Englishman then has a chance to slip one over that may win him $25,000 and the right to fight Jack Dempsey for the world's championship.

Eugene Corri, veteran referee, Eddie McGoorty, Fred Fulton and Jimmy Wilde, say that Carpenter should win. Beckett's most impressive showing has been made since he left the British air service.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 4.—Jack Dempsey, world's champion, was probably the most deeply interested man in Los Angeles today, in the outcome of the Beckett-Carpenter fight.

"Sure, I'm interested," Dempsey said, and added that he was anxious to fight the winner, preferably in this country.
