SALEM RAPIDLY RETURNING TO NORMAL TODAY

Street Cars Resume Runs And Absence Of Further Snow Keeps Paths Open; Freeze-NOKIHEKN Up Predicted Tonight.

COAL OFFICER FOR SALEM

Appointment of a coal officer for the capitol at Salem will be arranged today by L. C. Gilman, regional fuel administrator, according to a telegram received by Governor Olcott from Mr. Gilman. The telegram states that the South ern Pacific coal officer has been instructed to arrange for a coal supply for Salem.

Salem got its 'second wind' this morning and general conditions following the worst snow storm in 30 years or more are slowly returning to normal. The absence of further snowfall to block the broken paths last night, coupled with a bit of early rising, enabled most of the business men and women of the city to reach their work nearly on time this morning, although the biting cold kept those who could stay there close by the home is still being experienced here.
