THE DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1919.

AMERICAN LEAGUE ROW NOT SETTLED

"I'll put 'em in shape for the same if the boys want to go" said Bill Hayward, veteran trainer of the Oregon football squad when informed that Oregon had been selected to play Harvard at Pasadena on *New Year's Day. "To h--- with 'em. We can do it if Harvard can. President Campbell and

Coach Huntington were personally in favor of accepting the invitation, but the matter will go , before the athletic council before an official a .ceptance can be sent to the Pasa-leva committee.

Ean remained in town long enough to let the time limit for an appeal on the Mays case expire. He then headed westward with his five faithful magnates.
