"SLOAN'S LINIMENT NEVER FAILS ME!"

Any man or woman who keeps it handy will tell you that same thing

ESPECIALLY those frequently attacked by rheumatic twinges.
A counter-irritant, Sloan's Liniment scatters the congestion and penetrates without rubbing to the afflicted part, soon relieving the ache and pain.
Kept handy and used everywhere for reducing and finally eliminating the pains and aches of lumbago, neuralgia, muscle strain, joint stiffness, sprains, bruises, the result of exposure to weather.

Sloan's Liniment is sold by all druggists, 45c., 70c., $1.40.

Couple Offer To Sell Their Christmas Babe

San Francisco, Dec. 12.—For sale—a Christmas baby.
Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Barnett, who already have two small children, have caused the following "ad" to be published here:
"Wanted—Someone to adopt a child at birth. Due about Christmas.
References exchanged."
The father, a lack of all trades, at present striving to keep the wolf away by working as a cobbler, gave this explanation:
"It's this way. We've got two kids.
Kids cost money these days. We will be better off. The child will be better off. Why not face the facts?" Mrs. Barnett is 22. Their home is an apartment in a big old fashioned house in South street.

Big Increase In Price Men's Clothing Promised

Chicago, Dec. 13.—Another big increase in the price of men's clothes may be looked for next spring, according to opinions of clothing men.
C. W. Fry, secretary of the National Retail Clothiers' association declared "early wholesale buyers found a jump of 25 per cent over last year's prices of men's clothes."
"The garment workers are asking a 20 per cent increase in wages and if this is granted the price will go still higher," Fry said.
"Clothing prices will never go down to the pre-war basis," he asserted.

SIX DEBATORS ELECTED TO REPRESENT UNIVERSITY

University of Oregon, Eugene, Dec.
13.—In the semi-final tryouts for the debating team to represent the University of Oregon in the state triangular meet with the Oregon Agricultural College and Reed College to be held early in January, six candidates were chosen. Those elected were: Kenneth Armstrong, Jefferson; Ernest Hall, Eugene; Ernest Crockett, Spokane, Wash.; and Elmer Pendell, Wav-

Fooling With Health Series

I have frequently asked druggists, "What do you push in a bloodline?" The answer usually came,
"Kind I can make the most money."
My answer has always been "No." I have succeeded pretty well at have always recommended the one I had found by experience to be best and the one I would be willing take myself or give to members of own family. I have never offered public a medicine that we do not at home. This is why I can offer "N-ber 40 for the Blood," with a clear science; we have not only tried it thousands of others, but on ourselves. We take it in all cases where a medicine is needed no matter inform it shows itself and we get a did results in constipation, kid-stomach and liver troubles. I first believe if every one would begin the spring and take "Number 40" they would escape malaria and fein all forms. J. C. Mendenhall, 40 cut to four in order that the two minated may start work on either coast or international debate.

"Exide" Starting & Lighting Battery

—the battery that by hard, sturdy, powerful and persistent service in motor cars all over the country has earned itself the title of "the Giant that Lives in a Box."

The "Exide" Battery is a giant of the most dependable sort. Every ounce of it represents strength and endurance; every detail of its construction has been proved right in many years of practical performance. It was designed and is manufactured by the largest maker of storage batteries in the world.

Put an "Exide" Giant's power behind your starting and lighting system and have done with guesswork.

Inch for inch and pound for pound, there is more power and punch in the "Exide" Giant than in any other starting battery

Americans Eat Less BREAD Than They Should

Why do people in Europe live more cheaply than Americans?
Because BREAD forms the greater portion of their diet.

In Great Britain 10 per cent more BREAD is eaten than in America. In Italy 28 per cent more is eaten. In France 70 per cent more is eaten.

In each of these countries the production of wheat is only a fraction of what it is in America.

If Bread is the Best Food for other nations, why should it not be for Americans.

HOLSUM is your Best BREAD
Eat More of it.
