AMERICAN RADICALS FOLLOWING PLAN OF RUSSIA BOLSHEVISKI

New York, Dec. 17.—After a tour of the industrial cities of the United States, during which he has been in constant touch with the State Department and the Department of Justice, John A. Embury until his arrival here American Consul in Omsk and Odessa, said last night the radicals here were following to the letter the plans used by the Bolsheviki of Russia. He charged further that American I. W. W. and Communists were part of an organization created by the Soviet Government to achieve a worldwide revolution.

"The first aim of the American agitator as I have found in my study, is to first foment strikes so that the mass of the people should be discontented, hungry and without shelter," he said. "The next step is to point out to them that the Soviet Government is a complete success and that the Russian people were in exactly their plight before they turned to Bolshevism, and now they are living in Utopia."

Mr. Embury said this phase of the plan was conducted in 327 newspapers and periodicals, financed by the Russian soviet government.

"The Bolsheviki government is now fighting for its life," he continued. "Started as a criminal band, it must keep up the fight. The only way it can do this is to have Bolshevism all over the world. That has been the leader. That is why they have perfected a worldwide organization, one branch of which is in this country, to conduct Bolsheviki propaganda."

Spent Lots Of Money, He Says

Could Find Nothing to Help Him Until He Took Tanlac, Wife is Also Helped

W. O'Gorman, a well known employee of the Oil Well Supply Co., and his wife, who reside at 611 East Fifth St., Los Angeles, are both enthusiastic in their praise of Tanlac, and made the following statements a few days ago:

"Tanlac just beats anything I have ever seen to build up a rundown man and put him back on his feet again," said Mr. O'Gorman. "For the past two years I have been going around with little life or strength about me, and I was so weak that when I got through with my work in the evenings I was almost exhausted. I had little or no appetite and what I ate did me more harm than good, and it seemed that I had a cold all the time and could never find anything that would drive it out of my system. I couldn't sleep good at night and when I got up every morning I would start coughing and for half an hour or more I would heave cough my head off.

"I spent all kinds of money for medicines but nothing ever did me a particle of good until I began taking Tanlac, and I want to tell you Tanlac built me up so fast that it looked like it was made especially for me. I eat three big hearty meals every day, digest it perfectly and am gaining in weight and strength right along. I am not troubled any more with colds and the cough that used to bother me every morning has left me entirely. I am sleeping sound all night long and get up feeling fine and I have so much more strength and life about me that I just want to keep on the go all the time."

In relating her experience with the medicine Mrs. O'Gorman said: "I just can't think of anything that would be too good to say about Tanlac for it has made me a well and happy woman. Indigestion troubled me so bad that I didn't care whether I ever ate anything or not, for I knew if I did I would have terrible pain for hours afterwards. I was bothered more in the mornings than at any other time, and it just seemed that I could hardly stand the pain sometimes. I was losing my strength fast and all the time I went about feeling weak and drabby.

"My mother had tried Tanlac and she had done her so much good that she advised me to take it, and when I had finished four bottles I stopped taking it for I started gaining weight so fast that I was afraid I couldn't wear my clothes. Anyhow I wasn't after gain in weight so much as I wanted to be rid of the indigestion and those terrible pains in my stomach, and they had already been entirely overcome, so Tanlac had done its work and I didn't need to take any more. Everything tastes good to me now and I don't have a trouble of any kind. I can certainly join my husband in praising Tanlac for it was just the thing both of us needed."

Tanlac is sold in Salem by Tyler's Drug Store, in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Bee Gough, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cornelius, in Woodburn by Lyman H. QUINABY WOMAN HURT WHEN PIPE EXPLODES

Two "frozen pipe" explosions have marked the cold spell of the past week at Quinaby, according to J. C. McFarlane, of that place, who was in Salem yesterday.

Mr. McFarlane's home was the scene of one of the accidents, when the hot water pipe just outside of the stove burst, filling the room with steam. No one was hurt, however.

The other explosion occurred at the home of C. L. Beckner, Wednesday morning. Soon after a fire was started in the stove the frozen coil exploded, blowing the stove to pieces. Mrs. Beckner, who was close to the stove at the time, was severely scalded around the face and neck and cut by flying pieces of metal.

McFarlane reports that the houses in the vicinity of Quinaby have been partly broken and are passable.

Gilbert Buys Fruit Farm; Centralize Interests Here

Deciding to centralize his interests permanently in Salem and vicinity Lee L. Gilbert, distributor of the Elgin Six for western Oregon, has disposed of his property holdings in Portland and has purchased the Fanny Carthage place of 26 acres, six miles west of this city on the Dallas road. The consideration was reported to be around $8000.

While Mr. Gilbert intends to continue to make his home in Salem, he plans on spending the summer months on the place he has just purchased. The entire 26 acres are cleared and in addition to fruit trees now on the place, he intends to plant about 10 acres to loganberries and 5 to grapes.
