Plumbers of this city are being Plumbers of this city are being swamped with business these days. The work is coming into the shops with such impetus that the plumbers have found it impossible to render more than temporary relief in repair-ing water systems which were dam-aged during the recent cold spell. It is estimated that the damages incur-red from frozen hot water coils and red from frozen hot water coils and exposed pipes alone will not be less than $10,000 in this city. Nearly all of the school buildings of the city suffered interference with water and drain systems due to the zero weather. John W. Todd, superintendent of city schools estimates, how ever, that repairing of the damages to school property will not exceed $200. No change has been made from the previous announcement that the Salem schools will reopen December

New York, Dec. 18 .- Dutch Reuther, Cincinnati and Grover Alexander, Chicago, were leading hurlers in the National league last year-depending on how you figure the standings. Pitching averages made public by President John Heydler showed Alex-ander permitted 1.72 runs per game in 1919. Reuther won 19 games and lost six for the Reds for an average of .760.
